

Cancer Control Advancing, Says U. M. Authority

DETROIT (AP)—A University of Michigan authority on cancer says researchers have made greater strides in developing cancer controls than the public realizes.

Dr. Frederick A. Collier told the Michigan Clinical Institute Wednesday that the public, impressed by the rapidity of scientific developments, had come to expect miracles in cancer.

"Actually," he said in a talk on cancer research "we've advanced as rapidly as the manufacturers of automobiles, ice boxes and other products—perhaps faster."

Dr. Collier said it wasn't until 1940 that knowledge of blood groups, proper correction of patient malnutrition and better anesthesia made extensive use of surgery in cancer cases valuable. Because of "tremendous advances" in cancer research, he said, we can look forward to greater success in medicine's attack on cancer.

Dr. Alexander Brunschwig, co-speaker on the cancer control program, said that "though some of my colleagues will not agree, I do not believe patients should be told they have cancer."

Dr. Brunschwig, of the Memorial Hospital for Cancer and Allied Diseases, New York, said he has found that most cancer patients usually suspect it.

"But they go along cheerfully with treatment," he said. "As long as they are not told, they like to cling to hope."

Court Convicts 10 Puerto Ricans

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal court jury early today convicted 10 Puerto Rican Nationalist party members of seditious conspiracy after deliberating the case for nearly 16 hours.

An 11th man was acquitted. The group had been charged with trying to bring about the "political independence of Puerto Rico from the United States by force and violence and armed revolution."

Testimony at the trial linked the Nationalist party with the 1950 attempt to assassinate former President Truman and the wounding of five congressmen in the U.S. House of Representatives March 1, 1954.

The new convictions brought to 27 the number of Nationalist party members who have been convicted, or pleaded guilty to, seditious charges in the past six months.

As in previous cases, the 10 face up to six years in prison and $5,000 in fines or both. Sentencing was set for March 31.

Senator Potter Has Callous Removed From Stump Of Leg

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Charles E. Potter (R-Mich) is recovering from minor surgery performed last week at Bethesda (Md.) Naval Hospital where a callous was removed from the stump of his right leg.

Potter lost both legs as the result of an exploding land mine in World War II. He walks with artificial limbs, which, doctors say, cause callouses that have to be removed from time to time.

Potter, who is resting at his apartment in nearby Alexandria, Va., is expected to return to Senate action nearly next week.

Backers Of Bigger Trunk Road System Strong In Senate

LANSING (AP)—Advocates of a bigger arterial highway system in Michigan won their first test vote in the Senate Wednesday and pressed for complete victory today.

Sen. Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek), the Republican floor leader, led a mixture of Republicans and Democrats in upsetting a Senate Highway Commission decision that new highway tax money should benefit local governments more than the state.

Timetable Set On Korea Bonus

LANSING (AP)—A tentative timetable for payment of the Korean veterans bonus was announced today by the Adjutant General's Office.

The timetable calls for printing of the application forms by March 21, distribution of the forms throughout the state by March 28 and the processing of the first claims by April 8.

In announcing the timetable, Brig. Gen. George C. Moran, State Adjutant General, emphasized that a hitch anywhere along the line could delay the processing of the first claims.

The bonus application forms will be distributed throughout the state to veterans counseling centers, all veterans organizations, local Red Cross chapters, AFL and CIO union locals and county clerks' offices.

Guaranteed Wage Is Goal Of CIO In Auto Industry

DETROIT (AP)—The bell sounds next week for the opening round in the CIO United Auto Workers' showdown fight for a guaranteed annual wage in the auto industry.

The union announced in joint statements with General Motors and Ford Wednesday that "explanatory" talks will be held then—separately with each company.

The GM and Ford talks will cover roughly half a million workers. They will spearhead a drive which the union hopes will win a guaranteed annual wage for more than a million auto workers and perhaps many of the CIO's four million other members.

The UAW is demanding contract guarantees that any seniority worker who works any part of a week will be paid for a full 40 hours. He also would be guaranteed a certain part of his full wage for a week when there is no work for him at all.

General Motors' five-year contract with the union expires May 29. The Ford pact runs out June 1. Formal negotiations with the two biggest auto producers are scheduled to begin in early April.

Wolfson Says Ward Earnings Need His Tonic

CHICAGO (AP)—Financier Louis Wolfson says that if he gains control of Montgomery Ward & Co. he'll increase earnings or step down.

The New York and Florida industrialist, determined to unseat the big mail order firm's 81-year-old chairman Sewell Avery, held the fourth of a series of cross-country meetings with stockholders in the company's home bailiwick Wednesday. Earlier meetings were in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Jacksonville, Fla.

Over cookies and coffee in the Conrad Hilton Hotel, the 43-year-old Wolfson promised that he either would increase Ward's earnings or "I would tender my resignation and walk out."

He said the meeting attracted 2,113 stockholders, representing 173,125 shares of stock. A similar meeting is scheduled Friday in Detroit, and another in New York at an undisclosed date.

Ward stockholders will elect directors April 22 to spell the final verdict on Wolfson's fight for control.

In a short speech and a lengthy question-and-answer period, Wolfson injected into the discussion the name of Sears, Roebuck & Co., a Ward competitor.

He said a Sears subsidiary, Allstate Insurance, owned Ward's stock and that "events of the last few days make me feel Sears does not want to get rid of this present management at Ward's. They don't want competition."

"If I and my associates get in at Ward's," he declared, "Sears is going to get the greatest run. The statement drew the biggest applause of the meeting."

Tax On Business Receipts Held Up

LANSING (AP)—A joint legislative committee today sought to settle a House-Senate dispute over extending the Business Receipts Tax before the tax expires Tuesday.

Both chambers have passed the extension. The Senate agreed to an indefinite extension, while the House approved extending the measure only to Dec. 31.

Rep. Rollo Conlin (R-Tipton), chairman of the House Taxation Committee, said the House wanted a temporary extension to force consideration this session of a permanent tax program designed to raise from 25 million to 30 million dollars in "new" money.

Sen. leaders, he said, apparently want to delay drawing up a new tax program until next year.

The bill has already been sent to conference, but the committee fought to a deadlock.

House Republicans interrupted Wednesday's session to caucus on a bill to effect technical changes in the Unemployment Compensation Act.

Speaker Wade Van Valkenburg (R-Kalamazoo) said Republicans agreed to go along with the changes, which he said were approved by representatives of both labor and management.

Union Head Gojack Cited For Contempt

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Un-American Activities Committee unanimously voted Wednesday to cite union official John T. Gojack for contempt of Congress.

Gojack last week refused to tell a subcommittee whether he is or ever was a Communist, or to answer a long string of questions about alleged Red connections.

The 38-year-old labor official is a vice president of the United Electrical Workers Union (UE) and president of the UE's District 9 with headquarters at Fort Wayne, Ind. The UE was expelled from the CIO in 1949 on the grounds it was communist-controlled.

Gojack repeatedly drew on the first amendment in declining to

Democrats Cook Up New Tax Cut Plan

Peninsula Airports Cheated; Congressmen Protest 'Deal'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reps. Bennett and Knox, Republicans from northern Michigan, have sounded a protest against what they call a "deal" to settle a controversy over allotment of federal construction money for various Michigan airports.

The two Congressmen wired Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams that the dispute apparently was settled by a switch in planned allotments for three airports. The Civil Aeronautics Administration (CAA), they said, agreed to give $50,000 to the Benton Harbor airport, as the state had requested, and the state in turn gave up its demands for $30,000 each for the Escanaba and Iron Mountain airports.

"It seems obvious to us that a "deal" has been made" between Brig. Gen. Lester Maitland, director of the Michigan Department of Aeronautics, and Fred Lee, CAA administrator, the Congressmen told Williams.

"Therefore," they added, "we would appreciate your advising us whether you have knowledge of and approve Gen. Maitland's 'deal' to get $50,000 for Benton Harbor at the expense of the two Upper Peninsula cities."

"If this 'deal' stands, Upper Michigan will not get one cent of federal aid money for airport construction."

Bennett and Knox made no reference to any political implications behind their charge of a "deal."

Bennett and Knox said their telegram grew out of a letter they received from Lee saying the CAA's latest money allotments to Michigan airports "are in accordance with the recommendations of the Michigan Department of Aeronautics."

Besides the $50,000 for the Benton Harbor airport, it also provided $80,000 for the Detroit-Wayne Major Airport, $66,000 for the Capital Cities Airport at Lansing, $60,000 for Bishop Field at Flint, $5,901 for the Pontiac Municipal Airport, $80,000 for the Willow Run Airport, and $65,530 for the Muskegon County Airport.

Panama Canal Rent Boosted To $1,930,000

PANAMA (AP)—The National Assembly ratified the new treaty covering U.S. use of the Panama Canal Zone Wednesday night by a 46-1 vote. The pact increases the annual rent the United States pays from $430,000 to $1,930,000.

President Swims For Exercise, But Doesn't Like It

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has taken to swimming in the White House indoor pool to get more exercise but he reportedly "just hates it"—the swimming, that is.

His physician Maj. Gen. Howard M. Snyder is happy about it though. Snyder feels it will help build the President's resistance to colds such as the one he has been fighting off this week.

During his first two years in office, Eisenhower virtually ignored the White House pool, which was used a great deal by the late Franklin D. Roosevelt and by Harry S. Truman.

Later, however, Snyder has been saying the President needs more exercise to maintain his muscular and circulatory tone and to keep him generally healthy.

Last Jan. 20, the second anniversary of Eisenhower's inauguration, Snyder said the President was in top physical condition for a man of 64. But he also said he had to get additional exercise. Golf was not enough.

Kidnap Threat Verdict Upset

LANSING (AP)—The State Supreme Court has upset the conviction of a University of Michigan student accused of extorting $3,500 from a friend's mother with a fake kidnapping scare.

The court Wednesday reversed the Detroit Recorder's Court conviction of William F. Welke, 29, who had been sentenced to five to 20 years. The case was sent back for a new trial.

He was accused of being the man who telephoned Mrs. Katherine Vasu of Detroit from Ann Arbor May 31, 1949, and demanded $3,500 for the return of her son, Cordell, a student living in the same dormitory as Welke and who was never kidnapped.

The court said Welke was convicted on prejudicial evidence.

The court said the trial judge erred in permitting the prosecution to bring in evidence the fact that Welke had taken a lie detector test and that the police officer in charge of the test believed him guilty. The fact that the results of the test were not introduced in evidence did not matter, the opinion said.

Father Hires Son, 36, Who Found Him After Searching 23 Years

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Woodrow Cosby has found a job—and a father.

He had searched 23 years for Joseph A. Cosby, who was divorced from Woodrow's mother in Charleston, Miss., when the son was only 3.

Wednesday the son, who is 36, found his father's name in the Los Angeles telephone book. He called him. "Did you have a son named Woodrow?" he asked. The reply was yes.

Woodrow was soon reunited with his father, a restaurant cook. The son, by chance, is also a cook. The father hired him.

Before he went to work he placed another phone call to his mother Mrs. S. J. Mascari, Memphis, Tenn.

Revenue Added To Offset Loss On Income Levy

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senate Democrats prepared for sharp, partisan debate on tax relief today with a plan to offset income tax cuts with revenue from other sources.

The Senate Democratic leadership unveiled its own income tax cut plans Wednesday as a substitute for the House-passed $20-a-person reduction for everybody.

The House provision, an annual $2,200,000,000 cut, had seemed doomed to defeat in the Senate.

The substitute would give 908 million dollars of annual relief, nearly all of it to low income families, at the rate of $20 for the taxpayer and $10 for each dependent except his wife. But it would repeal other benefits for corporations and higher income taxpayers which Democrats contend would more than offset that amount.

Chances Not Bright

Their chances of putting over the substitute did not appear too bright. Two powerful Southern Democrats on the Finance Committee, Byrd (Va.), its chairman, and George (Ga.), said they would not go along.

Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) declared he believed the substitute "will appeal to a majority of the senators."

The Senate Democratic leadership's income tax cut could be used only to the extent it exceeds the advantage of income splitting now enjoyed by married couples; the effect of this generally would be to limit the cut to families with incomes below $5,000.

To offset the revenue loss, the substitute would repeal two major provisions of the Eisenhower administration's omnibus tax revision bill of last year.

Corporations Lose

One of these, the accelerated depreciation plan which means big tax savings to corporations, would be repealed immediately. The other, which gives 362 millions of annual savings to stockholders on dividend income, would be wiped out as of next July 1.

Johnson said the effect of these three changes would be a net gain of three million dollars in revenue in fiscal 1956, which begins July 1 this year, and a net gain of 354 million in fiscal 1957.

The substitute also would: Extend to July 1, 1957, corporate income and excise taxes rates scheduled to drop April 1. The House bill would extend them for one year as the administration asked.

Repeal a provision in the 1954 tax law which permits companies to set up reserves for business expenses and charge them off against current income.

Johnson called the latter provision the "Humphrey blooper" and said minimum estimates of the loss from it are one billion a year.

Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey has disputed such estimates but has asked for repeal of the section, calling it an "inadvertent error." He said many taxpayers were trying to use it in a way not anticipated.

Big Fund Asked In Far East Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration was reported today planning to ask Congress for $1,200,000,000 to step up by about a fifth the flow of American economic aid to the Communist-threatened Far East.

This sum—some 200 million dollars more than Congress provided last year—would go to buy raw materials, food and equipment for 16 non-Communist countries during the year beginning July 1.

Any proposal to increase nonmilitary aid is certain to face opposition in Congress.

A new feature of the aid program as outlined by informed sources would be a 200-million-dollar Asia loan fund. This would be turned over to President Eisenhower to allocate to groups of Far Eastern countries who join in financing projects to improve the region as a whole.

Senior Play Is Clever Comedy

The celebrated comedy, "You Can't Take It With You", by Moss Hart and George S. Kaufman, which will be presented by the senior class of Escanaba High School Monday and Tuesday evenings, is one of the most popular and successful plays of modern times.

Performances, beginning at 8 p. m., will be presented March 14 and 15 at the William W. Oliver Memorial Auditorium under the direction of John Romstad. Student director is Donna Dubord.

Plot of the comedy revolves around the Sycamore family, which at first seems mad but delightful. In contrast to these people are the unhappy Kirbys. Tony, attractive young son of the Kirbys, falls in love with Alice Sycamore and brings his parents to dine at the Sycamore home on the wrong evening.

The shock sustained by the Kirbys who are invited to eat cheap food shows Alice that marriage with Tony is out of the question. The Sycamores, however, though sympathetic to Alice, find it hard to realize her point of view. Meantime Tony, who knows the Sycamores are right and his own people wrong, will not give Alice up.

Throughout the production, certain members of the household are engaged in strange activities, such as the manufacture of fireworks, the setting up of a printing press in the parlour, Rheba, the maid, and her friend, Donald, or Grandpa's interview with the tax collector when he tells him that he does not believe in income tax.

Study Now Being Made Of Needs Of Proposed Community Center Here

Plans for an Escanaba Army and Community Building were discussed and a study of the city's recreation needs in such a building was made at a joint meeting of the city recreation board and Army Project committee at the Chamber of Commerce office last night.

Advantages and disadvantages of various proposed sites were pointed out, but it was emphasized that no decision would be reached until it was determined exactly just what is required in a community building.

The group agreed that it is absolutely necessary to access accurately the community's needs and that to get full value from a civic center or community building it must satisfy the needs of those who will use it.

Meet Other Groups
Working in close cooperation with the Michigan National Guard and the Michigan Military Establishment, the Escanaba Army Project committee is formulating a proposal that will meet state requirements.

"Our first objective is to determine what we want in a community building," the committee pointed out. "That is why it is important that we meet first with the city recreation board. Once recreation needs are accurately assessed, the committee will meet with representatives of various other groups which will use the community building."

"The building being proposed should be planned as a full-scale civic center and community building and certainly not entirely as a recreation building. Many people have the erroneous impression that this is to be entirely a recreation building."

A 'Community Center'
"It is our plan, in conjunction with the Michigan Military Establishment, to make this a community center. It will have widespread use as a community center, as a site for meetings, conventions, plays, concerts, home shows, building shows exhibitions and other events of an all-around community nature."

It was emphasized that Escanaba is becoming increasingly popular as a convention site for district, Upper Peninsula and state meetings, and with the construction of the state office building and the Straits of Mackinac bridge it was felt that Escanaba will be even more in demand as a convention center.

"After being fully informed about the plan, the city recreation board now will study recreation needs in the proposed building and report back to the Army Project committee as soon as possible," James Rouman, board chairman, said.

Offers To Deed Site
Last January 31, the City Council adopted a resolution calling for the City of Escanaba to deed a suitable site to the State of Michigan for an Army and Community Building "when the size and location of the site are determined and approved."

In attendance at the meeting last night were Arthur Goulais, Loren W. Jenkins, Archie Freeman, Paul D. Stack, James L. Rouman and James G. Ward Jr., of the Army Project committee and John Edick, Art Petersen, Mrs. Fred Sensiba, Howard DuFour, Frank Bourke, Mrs. Glenn E. Matheson and Rouman, of the city recreation board.

Historical Society Will Meet Thursday

The Delta County Historical Society will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday in Carnegie Public Library, when discussion will center around activities for the ensuing year, according to Charles Folio, president.

An interview with a Delta County pioneer, tape recorded by A. T. Solberg of Gladstone, past president of the Historical Society, will be presented as a feature of the program. The interview is one in a series being recorded for the Historical Society.

Committees will be appointed by President Folio and plans for the Society's summer picnic meetings will be discussed.

Lunch will be served at the close of the meeting. Persons interested in local history, although they are not members of the Society, will be welcomed.

Mrs. Saunders Taken By Death

Mrs. George Saunders, 67, 330 S. 10th St., life long resident of Escanaba, died at 3 a. m. today at St. Francis Hospital. She had been ill the past several years.

She was born, Mary Sears, in Gladstone, March 9, 1888, and came to Escanaba with her parents when she was 2. Her marriage to Mr. Saunders took place here March 31, 1920.

She was a member of St. Joseph's Church, St. Joseph's Altar Society and the Chicago & North Western Railway Woman's Club.

Surviving are her husband, one son, John William Dean of San Francisco, one daughter, Mrs. Mark Nickles, Kaukauna, Wis., two grandchildren and one sister, Mrs. John S. Spikes, Bristow, Okla.

The body was taken to the Boyce Funeral Home where friends may call after 2:30 p. m. Friday. Services will be held at 9 a. m. Saturday at St. Joseph's Church with Father Stephen Schneider, O. F. M., officiating. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Members of the Altar Society will recite the rosary at the funeral home at 3:30 p. m. Friday. The parish rosary will be recited at 8 p. m. Friday.

GOP Candidates Say CIO Seeks Control Of Schools And Courts

Republican candidates for state offices in the April 4 election declared here last night that efforts by the CIO Political Action Committee to take over control of Michigan's judicial and educational systems is the real issue in this election.

Approximately 125 attended the Republican rally at the Sherman Hotel which six of the eight Republican candidates for state offices attended. Each of the candidates spoke briefly. John B. Martin Jr., former auditor general, was chairman of the meeting and Walter Gries of Negaunee introduced the candidates.

D. Hale Brake, former state treasurer, now candidate for the Supreme Court, emphasized that the state's judicial system must not be tuned to any particular philosophy.

"Your rights and mine depend upon independent courts," Brake said.

"Dominated By CIO"
Brake pointed out that at the recent state Democratic convention Gov. Williams said he wanted to see men on the Supreme Court who would allow the philosophy of the Democratic party.

Other speakers also referred to this issue in their remarks, charging that the CIO-PAC dominates the Democratic party in Michigan.

The candidates declared that the objective of the union leaders is to take over control of the state's educational system as well as the judicial system.

"Education and justice know no party lines," J. Joseph Herbert, Manistique, chairman of the Board of Regents of the University of Michigan, declared. "The University of Michigan has become the great educational institution that it is because it has been free to seek the truth and to teach it. An educational system slanted to any dogma would constitute a great step towards ment of the MSC extension service. The State Board of Agriculture is the governing body of Michigan State College.

Stephen Nesbit of Fremont, candidate for the State Board of Education, and Clair L. Taylor, Lansing, candidate for reelection as state superintendent of public instruction, each discussed the threat of dictation to education.

"When anyone wants control of the courts and schools, we have reason to ask why," Nesbit said after referring to a CIO-PAC booklet on the subject.

Taylor, who was introduced by Wallace Cameron of Gladstone, declared that the issue involves local control of the schools and is not strictly a matter of partisan politics. He declared that there are 1,315,000 children in the public schools in Michigan and the number is increasing yearly.

Gries, who is a member of the State Board of Education, amused the audience with a series of humorous stories. Also introduced at the meeting were Mrs. Rae Hooker, Mount Pleasant, Republican national committeewoman and Mrs. Peter Gibson, Monroe, vice chairman of the Republican State Central Committee.

Words, Wit & Wisdom

By William Morris

A Paterson (N. J.) housewife writes: "I was reprimanding my oldest boy—he's at that mixed-up teen-age stage—for changing his mind so often about whether he did or did not plan to run for school office. 'You must make up your mind once and for all,' I told him, 'Stop this backing and filling!'"

"I know what you mean, Mom," he answered. "But where did you get that expression? I should think it would be backing and forwarding, not backing and filling."

"Well, I was unable to contradict him. Actually his phrase does sound more logical to describe someone who is continually shifting his ground. Yet I have heard 'back and fill' all my life. Can you explain it?"

Back and fill is a term from the language of sailing men. It describes a maneuver of tacking when the tide is running with your craft and the wind against it. Obviously not much progress is made under these circumstances. The end result is that there's a good deal of motion fore and aft—much shifting of ground, so to speak—but the boat stays just about where it was. So to "back and fill" has been taken into popular speech as synonymous with to vacillate or to be irresolute.

Several readers have asked the origin of a World War II slang term "gyrene"—a slightly derogatory name for a U. S. Marine. Curiously, this word has been overlooked in most of the postwar dictionaries—perhaps because of the mystery surrounding its origin. Now, though, the new WORLD WEBSTER comes forth with a fairly plausible theory—that gyrene comes from the initial G. I. plus the last syllable of marine. Just why the new word would contort two "i's" into "y" and "e" respectively is, as the saying goes, a puzzle. And perhaps explains the snort of disgust my favorite retired Marine Sergeant Major accorded the theory when I tried it out on him.

Among this column's readers there must be hundreds of ex-Marines and, for that matter, Marines presently on active duty. I'd like your ideas about the origin of this little-known item of service slang. Just send your thoughts on it along to me in care of this newspaper and perhaps collectively we can trace it back to its unsung creator.

Try And Stop Me By BENNETT CERF

Betty Furness, the darling of Westinghouse, recently spent a week as the guest of Anne and Charles Lederer in Beverly Hills. Mr. L. decided he was hungry just before going to bed one night and went downstairs to pilage some food. He found that Miss Furness had had a similar notion and was standing in front of an open refrigerator in the kitchen.

Charles blinked a couple of times and exclaimed, "I could have sworn I'd turned that television set off!"

The classified ad section of an Ohio newspaper betrayed an odd desire on the part of one reader. He sought an old-fashioned wooden potato-masher, explaining, "I want it for my mother-in-law." It turned out that absolutely nobody in the community had a wooden potato-masher he wanted to part with, but one helpful reader wrote: "A wire potato-masher will suffice nicely for your mother-in-law. Just hit her a little harder!"

The Doctor Says . . .

Doctors Pay Scant Attention To So-Called Dropped Stomach

By EDWIN P. JORDAN M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Our first question today comes from a writer who is worried about the seriousness of a so-called dropped stomach.

Q—How serious is a dropped stomach and is there any treatment for it? P. B.

A—There are few doctors today who pay much attention to so-called dropped stomach or intestines. The position of these organs inside the abdominal cavity varies from person to person and tends to be lower in a thin person than one who is stouter. Rarely does it cause any symptoms which need treatment and rarely if ever is any treatment indicated.

Q—One of my Fallopian tubes is open and the other one closed. Several people have told me that with this situation I could not have both male and female children, but just one sex, depending on which the first child was. What do you say about this? Mrs. G. G.

A—It simply is not true. You are just as likely to have children of both sexes as anyone else.

Q—I had never heard of tic douloureux until my wife came down with it a few weeks ago. Now she has been suffering something terrible and has been told that the only thing to do is to have an operation, but that it would leave her face and tongue numb. Would you please write about this? R. V. A.

A—The condition is a disorder of one of the so-called cranial nerves which come from the brain direct and supply a part of the face. The cause of tic douloureux is absolutely unknown. The pain is likely to be rather continuous and becomes virtually intolerable. Medical treatment is unfortunately not likely to be successful, although injections with alcohol at the proper point may bring some relief. All too frequently the only way to relieve the pain is by cutting the nerve entirely and this does result in numbness and other nerve signs. Although removing the nerve supply is not desirable it is often preferable to the continuous and terrible pain usually present.

Q—My husband has been getting blisters on the sides and bottom of his feet lately. What could be the cause? Mrs. B.

A—The most likely is ringworm although there are other possibilities. I suggest he see a skin specialist.

Q—Please discuss the possibility of a person getting well and not being disabled if they have had a pulmonary embolism. C. C.

A—This is a clot in one of the blood vessels supplying the lungs which has come there from some other part of the body. It comes suddenly; the person who survives the immediate effects has an exceedingly good chance of complete recovery without any aftereffects whatever.

Q—Could the use of female hormones or estrogen have any effect on a fibroid uterus? Mrs. S.

A—They would not shrink the fibroids though they might make some of the symptoms worse.

Today In Washington

By ROSCOE DRUMMOND

WASHINGTON—The modest changes which the Administration is gingerly making in the employee-security program constitute a useful beginning—but only a beginning.

To put the job of reviewing their own handiwork into the hands of the same officials who devised the security program and who have been principally responsible for carrying it out and defending it, is not going to get you a very objective or a very bold review. It's like asking baseball pitchers to revise the pitching rules and the batters to revise the batting rules. Each has too great a vested interest in one side.

Roscoe Drummond's column will be substituted three days a week for the column of Walter Lippmann who is ill. Mr. Lippmann's column will be resumed when Mr. Lippmann returns to work.

This is why neither the Administration's own basically-everything-is-all-right review of the security program and the Senate's probably-everything-is-all-wrong review is likely to be adequate.

It is not being unfair to organized Republicans to recognize that their tendency is to find that nearly everything is going perfectly and that all you need to do is to tighten up a bolt here and add a spot of oil there.

It is not being unfair to organized Democrats to recognize that their investigative tendency is to find that nearly everything is going to pieces and that the best solution is to scrap the works, including the Republicans, and start all over again.

NON-PARTISAN STUDY

The fact is we are not going to get a detached and searching re-examination of how the security program can be made to work better—both for the protection of the government and for the protection of individuals—until such a re-examination is put unreservedly into non-partisan hands.

President Eisenhower has acted upon this principle many times—and to good advantage. The several Hoover Commissions, the Randall Commission, the Highway Commission, the National Conference on Public Schools are all examples in which the Administration has acted to take partisan politics out of the study of national problems. This doesn't mean diluting responsibility. The Administration's responsibility is to decide what it shall accept or reject and to carry out the program once it is objectively reviewed.

The desirability of having the best possible security program—thorough and fair, just and strong—is as great as the desirability of having the best possible road-building program or the best possible review of veterans benefits. If a commission study in such areas of public policy and procedure is useful, it would seem reasonable to put as much care into improving the security program.

One independent investigation of the security program is being undertaken by the New York City Bar Association on a $100,000 grant from the Fund for the Republic.

A proposal for a commission-type of inquiry is before the Senate Government Operations Committee this week on motion of Sen. Hubert Humphrey, D., Minn. I suspect that if the President does not take an initiative stronger than he has thus far, Congress will take the matter in its own hands. This itself is far from ideal since the primary responsibility for policing the personnel of the executive branch of the government belongs to the President.

UNFAIR TREATMENT

Nearly every newspaperman in Washington knows of cases in which government employees have been casually, cruelly or cavalierly treated under the security program. Here is a recent instance:

"I was dismissed without a single direct statement from the government to me. The news came by devious channels to my superior in my private work. (I worked for the government in a consulting capacity.) I have never been told the basis of the decision; I have had no hearing, no opportunity to speak in my own defense; and there is no path of redress open to me so far as I can see now."

Attorney General Brownell has just announced that from now on the employee must be fully acquainted with the specific charges against him and that he should be given a personal interview.

It will seem unreasonable to many that it has taken two years to establish such a minimum essential of justice—to know precisely what you are accused of and to have a chance to defend yourself to your chief—and this suggests that a bolder, more detached review would break new ground for the benefit of everybody.

The smart man works to forget his troubles. Others forget to work.

There aren't any sleeping cars on the road to real success.

Into The Past

10 YEARS AGO

Paris—Thousands of U. S. First Army troops, surging across the Rhine south of Cologne, drove east toward Germany's heart tonight against surprisingly light resistance after cracking the historic western barrier in a brilliant coup heralding a speedier end to the war.

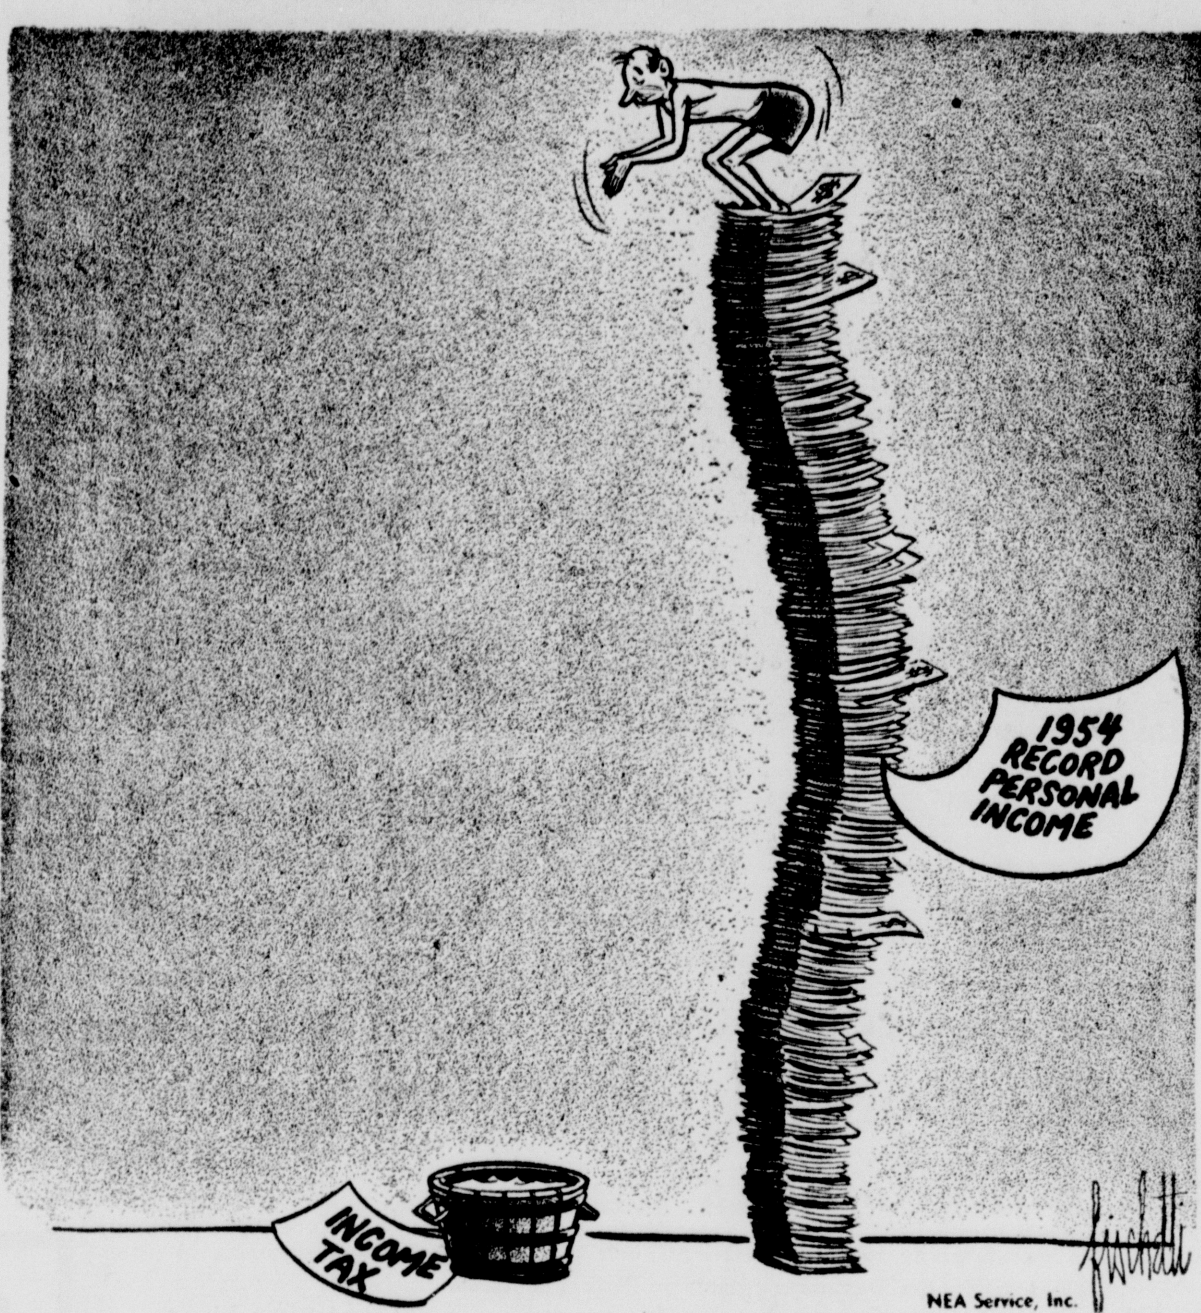

Escanaba—Delta County road commission employees who went on strike at 10 a. m. Tuesday will lose their jobs unless they went to work not later than 4:30 p. m. today, the road commission announced yesterday.

20 YEARS AGO

Cornell—Lorraine Harrison of Cornell is a patient at St. Francis Hospital following an appendectomy.

Munising—Miss Jean Baldwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Baldwin, Munising, was quietly married to David Bruce Brackett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brackett of Escanaba, at Appleton, Wis. Manistique—Alfred Erickson was the winner of a three-corner-race for nomination to the office of supervisor in Thompson township balloting Monday.

It'll Hurt A Little More This Year

No. 1 Evangelist Of Century, Is Title Given Billy Graham

NEW YORK —(NEA)— Billy Graham, the top evangelist of the moment, is off for his second swing around Europe. And, with a powerful one-night stand in New York behind him, he faces the trip full of confidence.

The European tour will keep him abroad until July and take him to six or more countries. He'll appear for eight days at Wembley Stadium, London, where last May he drew 120,000 for one meeting. That's his all-time high.

Billy Graham's adherents say he's the greatest evangelist of this century. They may be right—in 12 weeks in London last year, he addressed 2,047,333 people and these meetings persuaded 38,447 to "register their decisions for Christ." That's almost two per cent, a return which a hardened advertising man would consider great on a boxtop deal. And souls are harder to send in than boxtops.

Graham is an unusual evangelist. In the first half of this century, two evangelists were produced that will long be remembered. But Graham is a far cry from the whoop-doo of Billy Sunday or the "everybody's sister" approach of Aimee Semple McPherson.

Sister Aimee, the much-married Canadian farm girl, was a headline seeker. People came to see and hear the Aimee they'd read about, and if they joined her Four-Square Gospel afterwards it was a credit to her persuasive preaching. She posed in fire hats, aired her marital problems for everyone to see, let her pretty face be plastered on billboards and front pages.

Graham gets his share of publicity, but doesn't seek it for self-satisfaction. The posters for his rallies generally only feature a dignified portrait and the words, "Hear Billy Graham." He makes no news, other than the crowds he draws. He is happily married, and to his first and only wife. He doesn't shun the spotlight, but neither does he go out buying bulbs.

The other of the 20th Century's leading evangelists was the ex-major league baseball player, Billy Sunday. Billy's sermons were doozies—he called them "bouts with the Devil"—and he would dance, jump on a chair, shadow-box, throw himself on the floor. But his tactics lured thousands to Christ—Billy said he saved a half-million souls—although some said his was just temporarily soul-saving.

The latter-day Billy can preach with the best of them, but he is no shadow-bixer. He dresses as well for his sermons as he does for walking through New York hotel lobbies. There, his handsome appearance prompted a well-minked dowager to ask the room clerk if he was a movie star. He talks fervently, eagerly, most of his converts stay that way.

In only one particular does the Graham technique mesh with the Sunday method—music. Graham's rallies, like Sunday's, start with a fine spurge of hymn-singing. Sunday's song leader, Homer Rodeheaver, became almost as popular as the preacher himself, and anyone who ever attended a Sunday meeting will always remember Rodey leading "Brighten the Corner Where You Are."

Graham has Cliff Barrows lead his singing, and even employs a gospel recording star—RCA's George Beverly Shea—as soloist. Graham doesn't effect the vocal "rousers" that Sunday liked, but they serve the same purpose—to loosen up the audience.

Graham says he prefers middle-of-the-road evangelism. "Some evangelists shout a little too loud and all that," he says. "Of course, we have all kinds of people to reach." On the other hand, there is what Graham calls "the watered-down, namby-pamby, peace of mind sort of business." He thinks that's all right as far as it goes, but he doubts if it does any good "as far as Christian experience and getting people to go to church."

Graham feels that's the crux of the matter. He dislikes religious hypocrites. "Some believe in God," he says, "and go to church and still lie and cheat and commit immorality and drink, yet consider themselves religious. We have to let our feet catch up to our mouths."

Because of this attitude—he and his "team" follow up all converts—he is generally looked on with favor by most churches and ministers. His aim seems to be a genuine desire to help in the "religious renaissance" he thinks is necessary for the world.

Graham is a 38-year-old North Carolina farm boy, who grew up in a strong religious atmosphere. After a moderately wild adolescence, he was "saved" by a traveling revivalist, Mordecai Ham. He polished his selling technique by peddling brushes, studied preaching, and gave his first sermon in a desolate Tampa, Fla., mission.

His career has been onward and upward ever since, from that mission through smaller churches, smaller evangelical circuits, to his present position of eminence in his field.

He himself profits little from his work. He draws a salary—generally placed at around $15,000 a year—from the parent organization, the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, which has its home office at Minneapolis. This association takes in about $2,000,000 a year in contributions and collections. Graham scrupulously turns only one collection in a week over to the association on his extended stays in a city; the rest stays there. Out of that $2,000,000 fund, the salaries of his entire team must be paid; time bought on 800 radio stations of ABC and MBS for his weekly program (this alone costs some $25,000 a week); and the other expenses met. He says they operate at a virtual non-profit basis.

He lives well, but not luxuriously. With his wife and four children he lives in a big house in Montreat, N. C.—he calls it a "little mountain community"—but lately hasn't spent much time there. Mostly, he's off on tours, like the European swing. His schedule is set well into 1956. Money isn't his aim, souls are. "Who can't place a monetary value on just one soul coming to Christ?" Billy Graham asks. "Even if it costs a million dollars, it's cheap."

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON

(NEA Washington Correspondent) WASHINGTON—(NEA) — A curious relationship between U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations Henry Cabot Lodge has come to light indirectly.

Ambassador Lodge has been having a tough time with American correspondents assigned to UN headquarters in New York. About 30 of them threw a Dutch treat dinner for him not long ago, to find out what the score was. Right around the table, the reporters complained that the Ambassador was uncooperative, would not see them as often as they thought he should, and would not give out statements on American policy as new issues arose.

In short, the reporters said they were forced to go to the heads of other nations' delegations for much of the UN news they thought they should get direct, from the head of the U. S. mission.

After considerable of a go-around on this, Ambassador Lodge revealed that on many policy decisions he could not get quick answers. He had taken the UN job, he explained, with the understanding that he was to have full responsibility for it. He was not to be subject to State Department direction. He would report directly to the President.

This confirmed reports prevalent when Lodge first took the job. At that time he indicated that he would not take directives from John D. Hickerson, then Assistant Secretary of State for UN affairs.

SEN. WILLIAM LANGER (R., N. Dak.) challenged Sen. Prescott Bush (R., Conn.) to name one senator "who gets up at four o'clock in the morning and milks half a dozen cows." This was during debate over the congressional pay raise bill.

Bush, who opposed the measure, said he thought Sen. Harry F. Byrd (D., Va.) might fill the bill as a farmer.

"I should like to advise the senator from North Dakota," chimed in Sen. Wayne Morse (D., Ore.), "that I am looking for some cheap labor on Saturdays. He can come out to my farm and work for me."

Cracked Senator Bush. "Then I give the senator from North Dakota the senator from Oregon."

Shifting ground, Langer then asked Bush if he knew of a senator who was a laboring man and worked with his hands. "At the moment I am looking at a gentleman who, I understand, has represented and represents labor unions, and I assume that he himself is a union member," answered Bush. His reference was to Sen. Patrick V. McNamara (D., Mich.) who has been unpaid president of a pipefitters' local for 20 years, but whose real job is vice-president of an engineering firm.

REP. ROSS BASS (D., Tenn.) has been dubbed the "Social Lion" among new members of the 84th congress, according to Rep. Frank S. Thompson, Jr. (D., N. J.) another freshman member.

Referring to Bass, Thompson declares: "He said this morning it would be impossible for anyone down here to ever get hungry or thirsty. He meant that he has been able to accept every dinner, cocktail, luncheon and breakfast invitation tendered to him so far."

CAPTAIN Eddie V. Rickenbacker, board chairman of Eastern Air Lines, has been serving as a member of Gen. Mark Clark's special White House task force investigating Central Intelligence Agency operations. Recently General Clark decided to send subcommittees abroad to check up on CIA overseas. He asked his colleagues to say whether they preferred Atlantic or Pacific missions.

Captain Rickenbacker—who in 1942 was lost on the Pacific and adrift in a life raft for three weeks after a transport plane in which he was a passenger crash landed and sank—chose the Atlantic.

WHEN REPRESENTATIVE James Roosevelt (D., Calif.) delivered his maiden speech in congress, he spoke at the very end of the day's session. But because his effort was not publicized, his audience was small. At one time, only the Speaker and Rep. T. James Tumulty (D., N. J.) were on the floor.

Four-hundred-pound Tumulty interrupted Roosevelt at one point to observe, "Don't worry, Jimmy. You have the biggest audience you could get from the entire congress."

Economical Rockets Made In Ann Arbor For Defense Tests

ANN ARBOR (AP)—The largest parts of two cheaper, light-weight rockets were delivered to the Defense Department last week by University of Michigan engineers.

Leslie M. Jones, supervisor of the Engineering Research Institute said the two sleek aerial probes will allow the United States to investigate the upper atmosphere for considerably less than it costs now.

The new rockets weigh only 220 pounds and stand eight feet tall. They can fly into the upper altitudes and report back to earth for only $15,000. The largest rockets cost $100,000 for the same job.

"This is important," Jones said, "because it means the government can afford to launch seven times as many rockets and thereby learn seven times as much about the upper atmosphere."

The university developed the parts of the rocket that house the electronic units entirely out of aluminum. An electronic beacon in the nose of the rocket allows it to be tracked by radar.

For the rockets, it's one flight to extinction. They can only be used once.

Village Has Many Antique Shops

OSHTIMO, Mich. (AP)—The village of Oshtimo, which calls itself "The Antique Capital of Michigan," probably is the only community in the United States where antique shops outnumber gas stations and restaurants combined.

This hamlet of 210 residents near Kalamazoo has two gas stations, one restaurant and four thriving antique shops. All four do a lively business.

Milwaukee Welsh Church Closes

MILWAUKEE (AP)—The Welsh Presbyterian Church, which served Milwaukee for 104 years, has closed its doors.

Present for final services were 138 persons, some of whom came from as far away as Tennessee. The service was conducted in Welsh and English and the singing in Welsh.

The local congregation had dwindled to 30 members, too small to continue operation of the church to continue the operation of the church. The building has been purchased by the Milwaukee School of Engineering which will construct classrooms in the basement but reserve the church for special services such as weddings and funerals.

Col. Bartella Heads Air Base

Col. John M. Bartella, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Bartella, 516 S. 9th St., has been named commander of the Nouasseur Air Base in French Morocco.

The post also carries an additional duty on the staff of the commander of the Southern Materiel Area, also located on the base, as director of base services and command of the 7280th Air Base Group.

Nouasseur is the site of an enormous depot facility being constructed for the U. S. Air Force.

Col. Bartella reported overseas in July, 1953 and his wife and sons have been at Nouasseur since January of last year. His tour of duty extends until January 1956 at which time he will be given assignment in the United States.

Other responsibilities of the base commander include the presidency of the Officers Club, membership in the Boy Scout Council and the chairmanship of the advisory committee for teenage activities.

Murder Sentence Of Left-Handed Man Reduced By Judge

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A left handed man's murder sentence has been ordered reduced — because he held the death weapon in his right hand.

Sam S. Canino's attorney argued that had Canino planned the murder of his wife, Evelyn, 29, he would have held the pistol in his left hand.

Superior Judge Joseph M. Malby denied the attorney's motion for a new trial Wednesday, but agreed that the slaying was not premeditated. A jury had recommended life for Canino for first degree murder. The judge reduced it to five years for life for second degree murder.

Canino, 39, of Peoria, Ill., killed his wife Oct. 31, 1954, at her home in Harbor City, in the Los Angeles area. He was visiting her in an attempt to effect a reconciliation.

Four-Lane Job Begins In 1955

Four miles of 4-lane highway between Escanaba and Gladstone is definitely scheduled for construction this year, Mayor Rex Stowe was assured in conference with State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler at Lansing last week.

The project is being set up so that the remainder can be done as soon as possible, the mayor was told.

In answer to a direct query, Mayor Stowe was told that the highway would not be by-pass Gladstone unless the City of Gladstone refuses to cooperate in the project.

Present plans call for the first four miles to be built from N. 23rd Street in Escanaba, which is now 4-lane, northward. The four miles would run approximately to the Escanaba River Bridge.

A part of N. 23rd St., in Escanaba has already been widened to 4-lanes as a special assessment project conducted by the City of Escanaba.

Municipal Power Advantages Told At Meeting Here

The advantages to Escanaba and its people of owning and operating a municipal electric generating plant were told to a small group of citizens at a meeting last night in Wm. Bonifas Auditorium by Charles Podas and E. O. Shultz, consulting electrical engineers of Minneapolis.

Podas and Shultz spoke at the second in a series of three public meetings sponsored by the Harnischfeger UAW-CIO union local. A spokesman for the Upper Peninsula Power Company was heard last week, and next week the speaker will be a representative of the Alger-Delta Electric Cooperative.

At last night's meeting Podas reviewed the several proposals made to the city of Escanaba as solutions to its power problem, and noted that his firm had a three-year acquaintance with the local problem, since it is retained by the city of Gladstone on its municipal power project.

Profit To City
Pfeifer & Shultz was hired by the Escanaba City Council to evaluate all of the proposals and to recommend a solution to the problem. The study began last September and the report was submitted in December.

Podas said the study made by his firm covered a period from 1939 to 1954, inclusive, and that the electric load growth has averaged about 10 per cent per year in Escanaba, the same as for the nation. In 1954 Escanaba used 27 million kilowatt hours of electricity and the electric utility profits turned over to the city general fund totaled $240,000.

By combining an electric generating plant and a central steam heating plant, as recommended by Pfeifer & Shultz, the steam utility could become more profitable to the city and its benefits extended to more persons in the downtown area, Podas said.

Consumers Will Pay
The people of Escanaba must decide whether they want the city to stay in the electric power business, Podas said. If the decision is to "stay in business" the Pfeifer & Shultz report shows how a generating plant can be financed by revenue bonds and paid for from the electric rates.

"Any generating plant that is built—whether by the Upper Peninsula Power Company, the Alger-Delta REA, or the city—will be paid for from the rates charged the consumers," Podas said.

Shultz outlined the proposed municipal plant for Escanaba. The site selected is on the north bay shore near the Reiss Coal Dock. Two 7,500 KW turbine generating units and one 1,500 KW unit in conjunction with steam heating are proposed, he said.

Money For Services
Total estimated cost of the project would be $4,400,000 and includes rebuilding of portions of the present electric distribution system. The cost of the plant could be retired through revenues in as little as 15½ years, and the city could in addition expect up to $250,000 per year profit for its general fund.

Basic advantage of municipal ownership would be continued profit to the general fund to assist in paying for city services without increase in taxes, Shultz said.

Without the earnings of the electric utility in the past, Shultz said, the city would have had to cut services or increase taxes.

During a discussion period that followed, Podas and Shultz answered a number of questions. In reply to questions they said the capacity of the municipal plant could be enlarged as required, the same as a privately-owned plant; that interested citizenry could assure a good city administration and efficient utility operation; and that if atomic power develops it could become a part of a municipal generating plant as well as one privately owned.

Yacht Club Will Continue Classes In Boat Handling

The Escanaba Yacht Club will again sponsor classes in boat handling for junior yachtsmen, it was decided at a meeting of the club held last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Gasman, 615 S. 10th St.

Commodore Frank St. Martin presided at the business meeting at which plans were discussed for the summer program. This year the boat handling course will be divided into two classes, one for those children without experience in boating, and the other for youngsters with such experience.

The boat handling classes proved popular last year and were rated by the Yacht Club as valuable to the enjoyment and safety of the young people.

Class Leaders At Stephenson Are Announced

Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market bounced ahead today in a swift recovery from its two-day decline. Prices were up one to three points in many areas but especially in the aircraft division which was under fire in the selling of the previous two days.

Volume returned to about average levels at a pace better than three million shares for the day. Wednesday's total was a huge 4,500,000 shares, one of the largest of the year.

For two days the market had been pounded down severely, and just before the close Wednesday it started a rally that brought many issues up from their lows and sent others into the plus column.

Higher stocks included General Dynamics, United Aircraft, Boeing, Chance Vought, Crucible Steel, Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler, Radio Corp., American Telephone, Allied Southern Railway, Seaboard Railroad, Royal Dutch Petroleum, American Airlines, United Air Lines, North American Aviation, General Dynamics, and Douglas Aircraft. U. S. Government bonds were easy.

Look high and low...

1. You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars or stripped economy models of higher-priced makes!

2. Only Pontiac gives you luxury-car size plus the sensational Strato-Streak V-8!

Biggest car at its price (122" and 124" wheelbases) • Most powerful car at its price (180 horsepower) • Only car at any price with distinctive Vogue Two-Tone Styling and the riding and driving ease of the torsion-free, Shock-proof Chassis.

The most enthusiastic Pontiac owners are those who have taken this advice. They've looked the field over from top to bottom—and here's what they learned: Pontiac is way up there with costly cars in wheelbase, roominess and riding ease. It's big and comfortable, yet handles with expensive sports car nimbleness. The exciting dash and compelling drive of the Strato-Streak V-8 produce the richest thrills in motoring. And Pontiac is America's most distinctive car in styling as in action. Come in for the facts about this "all-time" value leader and our generous appraisal of your present car! Find out how little it takes to switch to modern motoring.

and you'll go Pontiac!

Teeners Like To Entertain

Gas Appliance Manufacturers' Association The teen-agers who have fun in their own homes are those allowed to do their own entertaining without constant adult supervision. These youngsters are doing hamburgers on a griddle for the crowd, serving their own barbecue sauce. Fun for the whole crowd!

By GAILE DUGAS
NEW YORK —(NEA)— Most teen-agers oddly enough, don't just take it for granted that their homes are open to their friends. It takes real teamwork on the part of mother to make them feel that their friends are really welcome. The first time your teen-age son brings a new friend home with him to do homework is your chance to contribute to your son's popularity and your own reputation as a mother who's "all right." School grapevines operate quickly and will pass along the word that there's a good time to be had at Jim's house. From here, it's just a step to open house. When Jim decides that he wants to have the gang over for supper, it's time for you to step aside gracefully. Give him the advice he needs, offer shopping suggestions and let him carry through. He might like to try a ham-

BUT THAT'S NOT ALL!

Your grocer now has Hills Bros. Coffee in specially-labeled money-saving cans. You save 5¢ on the one-pound size, 10¢ on the big "coffee-lovers" can. But even more than the money you save is the deep satisfaction of real coffee. Only fresh-brewed coffee gives you the tantalizing aroma, the rich flavor, and pleasant, lingering aftertaste that makes coffee drinking a pleasure. Never-changing goodness makes Hills Bros. Coffee an always satisfying experience. Blended of the world's finest coffees, roasted a few perfect pounds at a time by Hills Bros. other seasonings to the meat, shape it into patties (using waxed paper to separate them) and store them in your refrigerator until party time.

With the Hamburgers

Try allowing one-half pound of beef and two hamburger buns per person plus extras for seconds. Have lots of potato chips on hand, sweet and dill pickles, soda pop and cookies. Put out bowls of popcorn, peanuts, cheese bits and candy.

Don't stay around once the party's under way, even if you're asked. They'll all want to take turns at grilling hamburgers and toasting buns without supervision.

Further, no matter what the loud crashes from the kitchen, don't jerk open the door and call out: "What was that, Junior?" It won't put the plates back together again and it will put a damper on the party. Sit on your hands and clench your teeth, if need be, but remain the calm and gracious mother.

U.S. Faced Crucial Year When Washington Was 23

WASHINGTON—George Washington celebrated his twenty-third birthday 200 years ago on the eve of events that stand as a milestone in American history and his own career.

The lanky, raw-boned Virginia youth was soon to win fame and honor on the battlefield, to become commander-in-chief of Old Dominion forces and receive his first practical experience in politics.

The year 1755 was a crucial one for the future President whose birthday will be recognized the world over on February 22, the National Geographic Society says. Young Washington was already at odds with Virginia officials over his humiliating defeat at Fort Necessity in the Pennsylvania forest on July 3 and 4, 1754. He had resigned his commission and returned to Mount Vernon.

Disaster at Monongahela

Major General Edward Braddock, commander-in-chief of British forces in North America, met Washington shortly after debarking at Alexandria, Virginia, in February, 1755. Impressed by the youth's bearing, Braddock enlisted his services as aide-de-camp in a campaign to drive the French and Indian fighters from the Ohio Valley.

Unfortunately, Braddock was a novice in wilderness warfare. On July 9, 1755, he led the red-coated British into ambush and destruction on the banks of the Monongahela River in what is now Pittsburgh, Pa.

Prior to the battle, Washington was so racked with fever he could hardly stand. But the sound of gunfire seemed to revive him. With conspicuous bravery, he tried to rally the demoralized redcoats.

During 12 nightmarish hours in the saddle, two horses were shot beneath him. A bullet struck his hat. Others slit his uniform.

Washington then rode all night and the next morning, seeking reinforcements to cover the retreat.

Eight days later he wrote, "I now exist and appear in the land of the living by the miraculous care of Providence, that protected me beyond all human expectation."

Opening Of Long Struggle

Braddock's defeat was the first large-scale battle in the momentous French and Indian War, and Washington was mortified by his commander's undoing. He said the debacle was "so scandalous that I hate to have it mentioned."

But Washington's bravery brought his name to the forefront as the redeemer of American honor. He was commissioned colonel of the Virginia Regiment with a supreme distinction — commander-in-chief of all forces "that now are and shall be raised" for Virginia defense.

In the same year, Washington began to think of entering politics. He wrote his brother about the possibility of running as a Fairfax County representative to the Virginia House of Burgesses. He did not stand for office in Fairfax, but friends belatedly filed his candidacy in Frederick, Virginia's northern frontier county.

Young Washington was defeated, but he handily won office as a Burgess from Frederick three years later.

BALTIMORE (AP)—Ten Baltimore women got a chance in a recent contest to talk over the telephone to pianist Liberace. Eight of the 10 declined.

Bear Enjoys Life Amid City Traffic

DURHAM, N. H. (AP)—Reports of a large black bear, which appears to be conducting an independent "traffic survey," have reached the Fish and Game Department.

The bruin was first reported recently sitting in the middle of a traffic circle in town carefully watching vehicles whizzing by. A later account placed what appeared to be the same bear about four miles west on Route 4, still gazing at traffic.

Hurrying to the scene, conservation officers spotted the animal heading north to his natural habitat.

World Briefs

MUNICH, Germany (AP)—The American-sponsored Crusade for Freedom sent its 100 millionth balloon-borne anti-Communist leaflet over the Iron Curtain Tuesday.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Buildings shuddered, windows rattled and light fixtures swayed in an earthquake. The quake was very brief, sharp and strong but not quite enough to damage property.

ERZURUM, Turkey (AP)—Two Russians were hanged for spying on seaport and military installations in eastern Turkey. They were arrested in 1953 a week after they crossed the border from Russia. Photos and sketches were found on them.

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII appeared briefly at a window of his apartment and blessed groups of pilgrims and tourists gathered in St. Peter's Square. He remained at the window only long enough to give his blessing.

PARIS (AP)—Premier Edgar Faure's government has won its first parliamentary battalion budget issue involving limited pay increases for government employees and retired civil servants.

The National Assembly approved the budget article 362-342 Tuesday night after Faure warned his two-week-old cabinet would resign if defeated.

Phoenix, Arizona Sponsoring Tours

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—City officials believe Phoenix is the only municipality in the United States sponsoring sightseeing and historical tours.

Louis Messinger of the Phoenix Parks and Recreation Department suggested formation of the Visitors Club a year and a half ago. He started it as a hobby. Now it is a regular organization sponsored by the city.

Visitors are taken on weekly tours to points of interest. Messinger goes along as guide and narrator.

Each tour is limited to 30 persons in a city bus. One of the features of the tours is a picnic, with food and coffee supplied by the Parks Department and prepared over a camp fire in the desert.

Although most of those making the tours are visitors from other states, there is one Phoenix couple who take nearly every trip. Mr. and Mrs. William Haine, who came here originally from the East, and became acquainted on one of the first trips. They continued to take the trips. Last February they were married.

Joy Over Victory Somewhat Overdone

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Museum commission reports the most notable war victory demonstration ever made in the Commonwealth followed destruction of the Spanish fleet during the Spanish-American War.

To celebrate the victory, youngsters of Berks county, gathered at a traditional meeting place on a mountain to push "the Rocking Stone" a huge boulder that teetered as if on a pivot.

The tradition was that the stone would make strange sounds like a crying man. Youngsters had pushed the stone following victories in the Mexican and Civil Wars.

However, the youngsters were a little too enthusiastic in 1898. The boulder rocked over into the valley below, plowing a path through the mountain forest that can still be seen.

Without Naging Backache
Naging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer naging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Soap Up And Keep Hands Off
By ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

There is probably more anguish among teen-agers about complexion difficulties than about any other subject. Nothing is more blighting to an adolescent than feeling she has an unappealing complexion.

Let it be said right off the bat that almost all of these problems will vanish with scrupulous care and time. Teen-age is a time of body adjustment and one of the consequences of this adjustment is an active oil gland in the skin. Time will erase this if sloppy habits and brutal skin treatment don't make the conditions permanent.

Scrub Well

There are two vital facts that you must engrain in yourself as deeply as you have your best friend's phone number.

First is soap and water. Wash and wash and wash again if you have an oily skin. Use lots of soap and a clean washcloth. Use lots of hot water and then cold. Get into your hairline (the beginning of a lot of trouble), your ears and neck.

One trouble spot is the nose. Wash thoroughly and carefully over and around it, including under. Another is the chin. Close your lips in a very tight line to get the skin stretched out and scrub under your lower lip.

The second vital rule is keep your hands off your face. Don't pick, poke or scratch while you study. Don't finger a prospective pimple to see how it's coming along. Don't rest your cheek in a dirty, pencil hand. If you must support your tired head, put your knuckles under your chin in a graceful gesture.

Do Not Finger

If you can keep firmly in mind the idea that fingering your face is about the same as trying to improve a Camellia by rearranging the petals, you'll be out ahead.

When you wash, you should be scrubbing off the oils you've secreted yourself and the soot the air had laid on you, not dirt, fingermarks and germs from your hands.

So Pretty - Sew - Easy

Here's an adorable sports set for a miss of six to fourteen. Blouse, shorts and ruffle-trimmed skirt are so practical.

Pattern No. 8232 is in sizes 6, 8, 10, 12, 14 years. Size 8, blouse, 1 yard of 35-inch shorts, 1 1/8 yards; skirt, 1 7/8 yards.

For this pattern, send 35 cents in COINS, your name, address, size desired, and the PATTERN NUMBER to Sue Burnett, Escanaba Daily Press, 372 W. Quincy Street, Chicago 6, Ill.

The latest issue of our pattern magazine contains dozens more smart, easy to sew styles for all ages. Send 25 cents today for your copy of the spring and summer '55 issue.

HOTELS USE FOAM TO CLEAN CARPETS

Good hotels, whose carpets get far more wear than yours, know foam cleaner is the answer.

Hotel managers say foam cleaner such as Fina Foam does the job quicker and better than any other kind. Foam is easier to use, leaves nap fluffy and brings the colors back like new.

With the new Fina Foam, you clean your wall-to-wall carpeting standing up, easily with a long handle brush, and it's ready for use in a few hours. It's economical, too. A gallon of concentrate for $2.95 makes three gallons of solution, enough for three 9x12 rugs.

Organ Dedication At Covenant Church Sunday

Dedication of the new organ recently installed at the Ev. Covenant Church, the Rev. John P. Anderson, pastor, will take place Sunday, March 13, at 4 p. m. in the church auditorium, corner of 1st Ave. S. and 14th St.

Mrs. Cory Hartbarger, director of vocal music in Escanaba Junior and Senior High Schools, will be guest soloist of the dedication program and Mrs. Arol Beck will assist as violinist.

Mrs. Hartbarger received her bachelor of arts degree from Park College, Mo., where she was college organist and accompanist for the voice department and assistant choir director. She continued her studies for her master's at Westminster Choir College at Princeton, N. J.

Mrs. Beck, a graduate of Alabama College, was a violin pupil of Ottokar Cadek at the Birmingham Conservatory of Music and taught string music in the Birmingham public schools. She has played with several symphonies, among them the Birmingham Symphony Orchestra, the Memphis Symphony and the Albuquerque Symphony.

The dedicatory prayer Sunday will be offered by the Rev. Sigfred Carlson of Norway, district superintendent.

All members of the church and their friends are invited to attend.

Abused Hands Apt To Show Years

Scarlett O'Hara, when she visited Rhett Butler in jail to borrow money, took great pains to conceal the hard work she's been doing. She dressed in green velvet, wore a dashing hat. She did all she could to talk like the frivolous Scarlett of old.

It was her rough and worn hands that gave her away the minute Rhett touched them.

It is with acute misery that grown women realize that almost every dish they've washed, every laundry they've done, every spring cleaning they've gone through and every weed they've pulled has left its mark on their hands.

Fortunately, it's never too late. Abused hands can be brought back with a little patience and care.

For a starter, abide by two rules.

The first is never go outside in cold or windy weather without wearing useful gloves. Don't step out of the door and pull them on as you walk. Have them on when you open the front door.

The second rule is to try as much as possible to protect your hands from your work. Wear rubber gloves every chance you get. Under them, wear a protective lotion or a pair of lotion-or-cream-soaked cotton gloves.

Your Baby Personals

No matter how they try, a family inevitably gives in to the presence of a baby. There are diapers in the front hall, rattles under the sofa, dirty T-shirts on the bathroom floor, towels draped on chairs. In crowded quarters, there is little to do but relax and try to clean up before company arrives. Onebane that is unpleasant, however, is the endless succession of little blots on the rug, sofa and clothes, where Baby spit up a touch of milk. The odor clings. Protect yourself against this with a big apron that covers shoulders, an old sheet on the floor where Baby plays and another over the sofa where he's fed. Wash them often.

Mrs. Alice Peterson and son, Bunny Martin, of 1318 Sheridan Road, have returned home from Milwaukee where they visited Mrs. Peterson's sisters, Mrs. Bernadette Wood and Mrs. Marie Ehmk.

Mrs. W. J. Uren of Douglas, Ariz., arrived on Wednesday to spend a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Powers, 612 S. 12th St. Mrs. Uren and Mrs. Powers are sisters-in-law.

Mr. and Mrs. Bennett McCauley, 321 S. 19th St., left Sunday for Johnstown, Pa., where Mr. McCauley will be employed.

January Thaw Real, Not Merely Folklore

WASHINGTON—Weather scientists now believe that winter's famed "January thaw," predicted faithfully by old-time almanacs, actually occurs.

About three weeks into the New Year, across much of the eastern United States, a marked warm spell takes place too regularly to be accidental, detailed studies have shown.

Winters as a whole are known to be growing warmer in the Northern Hemisphere, the National Geographic Society says. But a regular thaw on certain dates in mid-January is something else again. Such an occurrence is called a weather "singularity."

To determine that abnormal weather is more than a random event—and hence normal—not only must the records of many years be studied but also rigid statistical tests applied. The most recent study of the January thaw did both, and went on to relate the distinct warming-up with a much larger phenomenon—a changeover in atmospheric circulation patterns over the entire continent.

In Boston, Air Force meteorologist E. W. Wahl charted January weather records from 1873 through 1952. His 80-year averages gave him daily "normal" temperatures, and these in turn showed a pronounced thaw in the three-day period January 21-23.

Half of all the years studied had higher temperatures on January 22 than on January 19 or 25. In other years warm periods merely shifted a few days either way.

This same January period that brings warmer weather to the United States usually sees severe cold snaps in Europe. Indeed, so bitter has January always been that the ancient Anglo-Saxons called it "Wulfmonath"—the month when wolves are most likely to be hungry and dangerous.

Pioneers and Proverbs

A January thaw in New England is mentioned in literature as early as 1798 and many times thereafter. In 1857 a book entitled Great West described "generally unbroken winter from the middle of November till January, when there is almost invariably a January thaw."

Such warm spells in midwinter have never been welcomed by farmers, who know too well that unseasonably early growth is likely to be hurt by later freezes. Many an old proverb warns of thaws in January:

"January warm, the Lord have mercy!" or "A January spring is worth nothing," and "If you see grass in January, lock your grain in the granary."

A folklore prediction even warns, "If January calends be summerly gay, 'twill be winterly weather till the calen of May."

Meditations for LENT

By DR. J. CARTER SWAIM
Dept. of English Bible,
National Council of Churches
Written for NEA Service

Lent is a season when we remember our Lord's temptation. "A disciple is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master" (Matthew 10:24, RSV); and if Jesus had to meet the Tempter, then we cannot hope to escape. What then did Jesus mean when he taught his disciples to pray: "Lead us not into temptation" (Matthew 6:13, RSV)? Jesus gave this pattern of prayer that it might end vain repetition: "in praying," he said, "do not heap up empty words" (Ephesians 6:12).

by which character is tested. We evidently are to pray, then, that God will not allow us to get into such circumstances as well be beyond our power to endure. Paul assures us that God "will not let you be tempted beyond your strength, but with the temptation will also provide the way of escape" (1 Corinthians 10:13).

COPS GET CIGARS

FREDERICKSBURG, Va. (P)—Patrolmen Donald Balderson and A. S. Kendall chased a speeding car and finally caught up with it in front of Mary Washington hospital. In it were Daniel William Culp and his wife, Ruth, and a brand new five-pound, five-ounce boy. The Culp got no ticket but the cops got cigars from the happy daddy.

'Less Wall Space' In 8-Sided House

COVERT, Mich. (P)—The Charles Robinson family lives in an octagonal home which has been a landmark here for 66 years. The barn is also eight-sided.

No one is quite sure why it was built that way, but Mrs. John Seplman, whose uncle, Orlo Shattuck, built the house, says that "Uncle Orlo had a theory that there was less wall space in a round-shaped than a rectangular house."

Therefore, she reasons, he might have figured it was cheaper to heat.

For best results, write WANT AD naturally and clearly. Low word rates permit a complete description at small cost.

Place ad for six times. Cancel when you get results. You will be charged only for number of times run at the current word rate.

Commercial want ads must be placed before 5:30 p. m. the day before publication. Other classified ads (For Rent, Help Wanted, etc.) will be accepted until 10:30 a. m. on the day of publication.

Rates for the minimum 15-word ad:

Words	1 Day	3 Days	6 Days
15	.75	1.80	2.70
16	.80	1.92	2.88
17	.85	2.04	3.06
18	.90	2.16	3.24
19	.95	2.28	3.42
20	1.00	2.40	3.60
21	1.05	2.52	3.78
22	1.10	2.64	3.96
23	1.15	2.76	4.14
24	1.20	2.88	4.32
25	1.25	3.00	4.50

Rates per word are 6 times 3 cents, 5 times 4 cents, 4 times 4 cents, 3 times 4 cents, 2 times 5 cents and 1 time 5 cents.

Group of figures count as one word. Each initial is considered the same as one word. For example:

Red Cross Drive Gets Started In Gladstone

The annual Red Cross drive for funds is under way in Gladstone with Leonard Elquist serving as local chairman.

Window cards have been distributed throughout the business district by Boy Scouts and industries have publicized the campaign through the medium of advertising.

Major industries in the city have been contacted by the chairman. At the Northwestern Plywood Corporation Walter VanDeWeghe is in charge while Jerrold Beever is handling things at the Marble Arms and Marble-Card Corporation. At the City Hall, Mrs. Torval Kallerson is chairman while Supt. Wallace Cameron is contacting the public school faculty. Mr. Elquist is now lining up block captains for a house to house campaign which will be conducted later to give every person in Gladstone a chance to contribute to the cause.

Briefly Told

On Program—Joan and Judith Johnson will be heard in vocal duets at the Covenant Fellowship meeting at the Mission Covenant Church tonight at 8.

Bible Instruction—A Bible instruction class will be held at 4:15 Friday at the Bethel Evangelical Free church.

ASSIGNED HERE—Trooper Robert Sandstrom has arrived in Gladstone to assume his duties at the Gladstone Post, Michigan State Police. He formerly served at Manistee and Grand Haven. His appointment to Gladstone brings the complement of the local post to nine.

DeRoek Quits Justice Race

Leo DeRoek, local business man and representative of the Secretary of State, for whom a nominating petition had been filed for the 2-year term as Justice of peace to fill a vacancy, yesterday withdrew as a candidate. It is announced by City Clerk H. J. Henrikson.

Michigan election law allows withdrawal of candidates legally nominated and certified providing a written request is made to the city or township clerk within three days of the deadline for filing nominating petitions.

Meteorites are said to be remains of masses circulating about the sun.

Couldn't Sleep Couldn't Eat

Maybe you aren't very sick and yet you don't feel really well. Perhaps you suffer from headaches, indigestion, nervousness, gas and short loss of sleep or lack of appetite. Frequently these symptoms are caused by constipation. When that's the case be smart and like Mr. Peter Bothen of Chicago, Illinois, take

Dr. Peter's KURIKO
Mr. Bothen states: "I suffered very badly from functional constipation and my bowel movements were not very regular. Since taking KURIKO when needed I feel much better. My appetite is improved and I can sleep at night."
Gently and smoothly this time-proven laxative and stomachic-ionic medicine puts sluggish bowels to work and aids them to eliminate clogging waste matter, helps expel constipation's gas, gives the stomach that comforting feeling of warmth.
KURIKO'S amazing effectiveness is due to a scientific formula which combines 18 not just one or two of nature's medicinal herbs, roots and botanicals—a secret formula perfected over a period of 80 years. Yes, for prompt, pleasant, proven relief from constipation's miseries—get Dr. Peter's KURIKO today.

STRANGE HAPPENINGS

STRANGE as are many of the happenings at the "social" bridge table, even stranger events occur in the most serious team-of-four contests.

For example, there is the classic case of the declarer who found himself in a bad grand-slam contract, and because of his desperate need, had to finesse for the queen of trumps. He won out, but his opposite number, South at the other table, stopped at the proper small-slam contract, played the hand properly—and went down!

Hoehn Elected C-C President

Attorney Clair Hoehn was elected president of the Gladstone Chamber of Commerce at its monthly meeting of the board of directors Tuesday night. Vice president is H. J. Skogquist with Rev. Theophil Hoffmann as secretary-treasurer.

Seated on the board of directors were H. W. Markham, Charles Burton, R. A. Watson and Clarence Goodman. Dr. George Kelly was named in the balloting but was unable to serve and Goodman was named in his place.

It was voted to send congratulatory letters to Coach Eldon Keil of the Great Lakes Championship Braves, Harold Anderson of Nahma and Bob Pelkie of Rock. Walter Chojnowski, professor at Northern Michigan College of Education, Marquette, has indicated a desire to conduct a business clinic here and he was told to contact President Hoehn. The proposal has the approval of the Chamber of Commerce.

Future board meetings will begin at 7:15. It was decided.

Books of the C-C were audited by a committee composed of Jerold Becvar and Fred Siebert.

"FIRE-EATING" HERE TO STAY — Prince Ulualo Tavui a Samoan fire-eater, is putting his talent to work for American industry. Ulualo (pronounced oo-loo-ah-low, with as few accents as possible) is shown above helping a Chicago, Ill., bindery company solve a problem. The company had to deliver 200,000 advertising pamphlets that had to look like centuries-old folios. The prince's talents did the trick. He does it by mouthing a swig of kerosene and blowing it into a torch.

Youth Group Plans Banquet

A banquet, sponsored by the Sunday School and Youth Association of the Great Lakes Conference, will be held at the Mission Covenant Church on Tuesday, March 15, at 6:30.

Speaker for the occasion will be the Rev. Clarence Agard, pastor of Salem Covenant Church, Minneapolis. Special musical numbers also will form a part of the program.

The banquet is one of several being held next week in the Upper Peninsula. Similar gatherings will be held at Ironwood, Norway, Negaunee, Stambaugh and Wallace.

It is open to any person interested in Sunday School and youth work.

Miss Lois Borna is in charge of local arrangements. Tickets are available from Miss Borna, Mrs. J. Milton Hendrickson and the Rev. Albert K. Borna.

Rock Has Fine Record Entering U. P. Tourney

GAMES TONIGHT

Class E
7-Nahma vs. Alpha
8:30-Trout Creek vs. Hulbert
GAMES FRIDAY
Class D
7-Marquette Pierce vs. Mass
8:30-Rock vs. Cedarville

The Rock Little Giants, riding the crest of the school's most successful season in many years, will begin their bid for the Upper Peninsula Class D basketball championship Friday night at 8:30 when they face Cedarville in a semifinal tournament game at the Holy Name gymnasium.

In the opening game Friday night the powerful Mass Rockets will tangle with a highly-regarded Marquette Pierce quint. The Friday night winners meet at 8:30 Saturday night in the title game.

The Class E portion of the U. P. tournament at Holy Name gets under way tonight. Nahma faces defending champion Alpha in the opener at 7 and Trout Creek meets Hulbert in the windup at 8:30. Winners clash for the championship Saturday night at 7.

Last One Game

There has been no question about the ability of the Rock team from the opening game of this season. New Coach Bob Pelkie guided his Little Giants to a 70-36 victory over Trenary in a Central League opener. In rapid succession the Little Giants scored wins over Rapid River, Nahma, Perkins, Bark River, Cooks, Eben, Trenary again and Gwinn for nine straight wins.

On Jan. 26 Rock suffered its lone setback of the season, losing on the road to Negaunee St. Paul by a 61-47 margin.

After that game, Rock swept to seven wins in a row to close out the regular season with a record of 16 victories against the 1 defeat.

In district play the Little Giants added Vulcan and Powers to their list of victims and will enter the regional here tomorrow night with an 18-1 record, best in Class D.

Cedarville Champ Too

Rock's list of 14 straight victories made the Little Giants uncontested champions of the Central League.

Cedarville's record is nearly as impressive as Rock's. The Trojans have an 18-2 record, including district tournament play, and have won their last 15 games in a row. Coach Bob McKerrill's Cedarville cagers also came out on top of their league, winning the Little Eight Conference championship.

Both Rock and Cedarville boast a potent individual scoring leader. Rock's classy Terry Hade, lanky pivotman, was the leading scorer in the Central League with 396 points at the end of the regular season. He added 40 points in his two district tourney starts to boost his total to 436, an average of just under 23 points per game.

Rock Starters

Bob Sherlund is setting Cedarville's scoring pace with 352 points to date in 20 games, an average of 17.60 points per start. Closely following Bob Kay with 297 and Ron Hill with 293. Other starters for the Cedarville Trojans are Adrian Dutcher and Gerald Hill.

Rock is a veteran team which includes seven lettermen from last year and three of the squad members are seniors. Hade is a senior as is Duane Vandenbusche, capable guard, and Louis Kulju, a reserve. The other three starters, forwards Vernon Norman and Ralph Anderson, and guard Jack Lund, are juniors.

Other reserves on the squad include Ronnie Hill, Dick Toivra, Ronald Aho, Richard Seger and Edwin Seger.

Tonight's opening game between defending champion Mass and Marquette Pierce could be a corker. Highly-regarded Mass already has defeated Pierce twice during the regular season—by 3 and 11 points—but the Marquette crew showed so much power during the district tournament last week that the game tonight could be even closer.

Mass enters the tourney with a 17-3 record while Pierce has a 14-7 mark. In regular season, J. D. Pierce split in two games with Rapid River and lost to Rock, as a comparative indication.

Sport Shorties

Baylor University's board of trustees had approved installation of lights in the football stadium for night games.

Peak years for 20-game winners in the American League were 1907 and 1925. In each of those years 10 pitchers won 20 or more games.

Grapefruit League Teams Open Spring Training Games Today

(By The Associated Press)

With opening day only a month away, 14 major league teams move into the Grapefruit and Cactus League phase of baseball's spring training today.

Seven exhibition games are on order, including one after-dinner affair between Brooklyn and Milwaukee at Miami. Five other openers are scheduled in Florida: New York Yankees vs. St. Louis Cardinals; Washington Senators vs. Boston Red Sox; Cincinnati Redlegs vs. Chicago White Sox; Detroit Tigers vs. Philadelphia Phillies and

Kansas City A's vs. Pittsburgh Pirates.

In the three-team Cactus League, the American League champion Cleveland Indians play the Chicago Cubs at Tucson, Ariz. The world champion New York Giants cool their spikes until Friday when they launch their exhibition schedule where they left off in October—against the Indians.

Baltimore Idle

Baltimore, which switched training bases from Arizona to Florida this year, is also idle. The Orioles open with Cincinnati Friday.

Some managers will start "experimental" lineups for the inaugurals but most pilots are leading with their aces.

Casey Stengel, starting his seventh season at the Yankee helm, wants a fast look-see at his Baltimore import Bullet Bob Turley, Turley, who came to the Yanks in that big winter deal, will pitch the first three innings against rookie Larry Jackson of the Cardinals.

Managers Chuck Dressen of Washington and Pinky Higgins of Boston are going with a couple of fastballing right-handers, Bob Porterfield and Frank Sullivan. Yearlings Al Schroll and Al Curtis will follow the 6-7 Sullivan to the mound for Boston.

Three rookies will toil for Detroit as Bucky Harris takes charge of the Tigers for the first time. Opposing them for the Phillies will be the big guy himself, Robin Roberts.

Conley For Braves

Bob Garver, 19-8 with Denver in 1954, has been given the first three-inning job for Pittsburgh by Fred Haney. Lou Boudreau, another of the managers with new teams, will counter with Marion Fricano, Carl Duser and Bill Oster.

Towering Gene Conley has drawn the starting assignment for Milwaukee and rookie Ed Roebuck, with a highly touted fast ball, for Brooklyn.

Mike Garcia is Al Lopez' choice to start things off for Cleveland against rookie Joe Stanka for Stan Hack's Cubs.

Virgil Trucks (19-12) will be the first of three White Sox pitchers for Marty Marion. Art Fowler (12-10) has the nod for Birdie Tebbetts' Redlegs.

ARCHERS MEET TONIGHT

The Red Buck Archery club will meet tonight at 7 at the Club 314 firing range.

Independent Teams Practice Tonight

Independent basketball teams will practice tonight at the Escanaba Junior High gym. At 7, A.I.'s will play Gladstone and at 8:15 Mike's will meet Skinny's in the practice tills.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Frank Rodman of Hermansville will be host to the Upper Peninsula Sports Writers Association meeting in a few weeks... Writers from all daily and weekly newspapers in the U. P. will meet to select the All-U. P. teams and coach of the year in basketball... This will be the first time the sports scribes ever met in a town that is not represented by a newspaper... The writers will have an opportunity to see some of the action in the 17th Annual Gold Medal tourney which will be in progress in Hermansville at that time.

Incidentally, there are a number of players active this season who landed first team berths on last year's All-U. P. basketball selections... John Kocinski of Alpha was on the first team in Class E, Barry Mussatto of Gwinn was on the Class D team, and Ralph Hurley of Houghton was on the Class C quint... John Quinn of Gladstone and Frank Hamilla of Munising landed second team spots in Class B.

Weldie Olson, Mark's brother who stars on the Michigan State College hockey team, finished this season with 41 points on 21 goals and 20 assists, ranking as the seventh highest scorer in the Western Intercollegiate Hockey League... John Gipp of Calumet, a Spartan winger, scored three goals and had five assists.

Want to try out a system we sometimes use in determining a team's basketball ability? You can test it in the regional tournament games here this week if you like... For years we've been hearing how well or how poorly a team does percentage-wise... By that is meant how many shots a team makes out of those taken.

It seems to us that a possession percentage is a better yardstick to use... In other words, how many times a team connects on any given number of shots doesn't seem as important as how often a team scores when it has possession of the ball... A team can take 10 shots at the bucket, all the while keeping possession, and hit only once; the important things is that it finally connects.

John Pilon picked up the very unusual 4-5-8 split recently in City League play at the Arcade... Clarence Moyle negotiated the 4-7-9 the same night, but the tough luck champion of the night was Francis Grenier, who cleaned up the difficult 4-7-10 only to be pulled off balance by too much "body English" and commit a foul by swinging his foot over the foul line... And Gerry Baum of the Elks Wednesday 9 Ladies League slammed out a hefty 215 count last night... She got a spare, four strikes, a blow, spare, strike, spare, strike and a blow in the extra... Belle Abel picked up the 6-7-10 split in K. C. Monday (9) League action.

Stephenson Seeks First U. P. Cage Championship In Houghton Tournament

The Stephenson Eagles, surprise champions of the Class B district tournament held at Holy Name gym last weekend, will be shooting for their first Upper Peninsula cage championship when they enter regional tournament play at Houghton against Munising at 7 p. m. Friday night.

Coach Walt Schousen's Eagles face the defending Peninsula champion in the first of two semifinal contests. Iron Mountain and Negaunee clash in the other game at 8:30. Friday night winners meet for the title at 8:30 Saturday night.

Stephenson, a provisional member of the Great Lakes Conference this season, won its first Class B district championship by defeating the Escanaba Eskymos and the Menominee Maroons in the tourney here.

Four Teams In Hockey Tourney

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (P)—Four hockey teams that have won 73 games and tied 3 against 16 losses this season go after the 2 additional victories one of them needs for the national collegiate title, starting tonight.

Harvard, the Ivy League champion with a 16-2-1 record, clashes with Michigan (16-5-1) of the Big Ten in the opener of the 8th annual tournament.

Colorado College, Western Intercollegiate Hockey League kingly this year with a 22-6-0 performance, takes on St. Lawrence (19-3-1) of Canton, N. Y., Friday night. CC will have the advantage of playing on its home rink, the Broadmoor Ice Palace.

The two winners will crack together Saturday night for the NCAA title won last year by Rensselaer of Troy, N. Y. The 1954 champions didn't have the power this year to qualify for defense of the crown.

Losing teams in the first two games will play a consolation match Saturday afternoon.

Harvard's offense is paced by Bill Cleary, who led all collegiate scorers this season with 84 points. Although Michigan had no single performer rated good enough for the all-league team, its strong finish gave it second place in the western circuit behind Colorado College.

Harvard is the only one of the four teams new to the national tournament. Both CC and Michigan are former national champions. St. Lawrence was here in 1952 but bowed out in its first game.

Kentucky Big Hurdle For Marquette Quint In NCAA Tournament

EVANSTON, Ill. (P)—Kentucky's star captain, Billy Evans, is ineligible to play, but Marquette still will have to be red hot to upset the Wildcats in their first-round meeting of the regional NCAA cage tourney Friday night.

"Evans is Kentucky's leader, all right," Marquette coach Jack Nagle said today, "but don't let Adolph Rupp tell you he doesn't have any bench."

Penn State meets Big Ten champion Iowa in the other first-round game here.

Although he played during Kentucky's regular season, Evans — as a graduate student — is ineligible under an NCAA tournament rule.

Have Their Troubles

For a team bringing No. 2 ranking in the Associated Press poll and a 22-2 record to Evanston, Rupp and his Wildcats have rolled with some tough punches.

Two other starters were lost earlier. Guard Linville Puckett quit the squad in a dispute over training rules. And 6 feet, 8 forward Phil Grawemeyer broke his ankle against De Paul and that ended his season.

Marquette, ranked eighth nationally, had a narrow squeak in a NCAA elimination at Lexington Tuesday night, winning an overtime from Miami of Ohio, 90-79.

That gave the Warriors a 23-2 record with 22 straight victories tucked between an opening defeat by Michigan State and a closing loss to Notre Dame in the regular season.

Nagle thinks his Marquette team is ready for a supreme effort against Kentucky.

Warriors Down

"We've been down the last two or three games," he said. "I just don't know what it is, maybe a little stale, or maybe a little weary."

"But when we caught fire against Miami after being down 13 points midway in the second half, I think we shook the doldrums. I believe the kids are ready to shoot the works against Kentucky."

Marquette lacks a scorer as consistent as Kentucky's Bob Burrow with his 19-point average, but the Warriors have been getting speers from each of a half dozen players. These include Terry Rand, who pumped in 27 against Miami and has a high single game count of 31; Bob Walczak, who has reached 27; Rube Schulz, who has plunked in 25 twice and 26 once; Russ Wittberger with a 27 high; Jerry Hopfensperger, who has reached 28; and Don Bugalski, who with Schulz hit 20 in two successive games.

4,390 Fans Saw Tourney At Rock

ROCK—The four-night district Class D and E basketball tournament here last week drew 4,390 fans according to a financial report announced by George Weingartner, Rock superintendent.

Total receipts for the tournament were $1,659.10. Travel expenses for visiting teams amounted to $886 and cost of officials, trophies and medals was $479.81. The host school's share was $225 and its expenses were $193, leaving a tournament profit of $61.30. The MHSAA share was $58.08.

Largest attendance was drawn on the final night of the tournament with 1,371 fans in the gym.

Weingartner expressed appreciation to the various groups and individuals who assisted in conducting the tournament.

PRETTY PASS PLAY—Player-coach Mark Olson sets up a neat scoring play in the semifinal playoff win for the Hawks over Calumet here Tuesday night. Olson has just taken a long pass from defenseman Joe Nogalo, not in the picture, and is slipping the puck across the face of the Calumet goal to Joe Ricci who is moving in from the far side of the net. Note the Calumet goalie, Clyde Berryman, who was pulled out of position by Olson. Berryman failed to recover himself in time and Ricci scored with ease. The Hawks beat Calumet 5-3 in the first game of the semifinals and will seek to end the series at Calumet Friday night at 9. (Daily Press Photo)

Big Ten Meets On TV Problem

CHICAGO (P)—The Big Ten is expected to decide Monday whether to go along with the 1955 National Collegiate Athletic Assn. football television program or take steps to televise its own games independently.

Defiance of the NCAA plan might bring expulsion of the Big Ten from the organization.

The conference's television committee Wednesday studied the NCAA program that was drawn up at a meeting in New York Monday and Tuesday. The plan will be announced by the NCAA Monday.

The Big Ten has been steadfast in demands for free negotiation for TV football sponsors and a regional set that would provide for appearance of a team twice, once away and once at home.

It was reliably reported that the NCAA plan does not conform exactly to what the Big Ten has sought. Whether it comes close enough for acceptance is the important issue that will be settled Monday in a joint meeting of faculty representatives and athletic directors.

Lansing St. Mary Cops 35th Straight Victory

By JOE FALLS
Associated Press Sports Writer
Little Bridge, a five-time Class D state champion, but given little chance in this year's tournament, continued to surprise everyone Wednesday night.

Led by guard Dave Kunde, who popped in 23 points, Bridge, powered past Marcellus 65-51 in the regional eliminations at Buchanan.

It was only the 10th win against nine losses for Bridge, which hasn't won a state title since 1946. Its other tournament victories came in 1928-29-31-45.

35th Straight Win
Meanwhile, in Class B, powerful Lansing St. Mary rolled to its 35th consecutive victory by whipping Three Rivers, 73-59, as center Ralph Coleman scored 27 points.

Three Rivers, led by Bill York's 28 points, played a spirited game from start to finish but simply couldn't match the class and rebounding strength of St. Mary, last year's Class C titleholder.

Inkster (Class B), one of the state's six unbeaten teams, raced to its 18th victory of the season by topping Redford St. Mary, 71-41. Inkster built a 38-8 lead at halftime and Coach Bob Harris substituted freely in the final 16 minutes.

Ludington, which won its fourth straight North Central Michigan B Conference crown this season, came to the end of the glory road, eliminated in a 74-62 upset by West Branch.

Too Much Height
West Branch, which recorded its 18th win in 19 starts, simply had too much height for Ludington. Gale Sullivan tallied 29 points for the winners but scoring honors went to Ludington's Dean Adams, who hit 35.

In other Class B games, Adrian defeated Greenville, 63-45, with Harry Masteller scoring 14 points for the winners, and Detroit St. Andrews led all the way to turn back Royal Oak Shrine, 55-45.

In Class C, Berrien Springs made its record 15-2 with an easy 67-36 win over Byron Center. New Troy, getting a pair of 26-point performances from Gene Johnson and Boyd Dean, defeated Olivet, 66-58, in another Class C game.

Traverse City St. Francis stayed alive in its Class C regional by defeating Atlanta, 59-56, in overtime. Tom Saunders scored eight of St. Francis' nine points in the extra session.

In Class A, Muskegon Heights, the defending champion, trounced Grand Rapids Union, 82-52, but the winning Tigers had their anxious moments in the first half.

Training Camp Briefs

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Chicago White Sox may get a look today at exactly the same Cincinnati Redleg lineup the Chicago Cubs will see when the Cubs and the Reds open the National League season at Cincinnati on April 11.

Art Fowler, the 31-year-old sophomore right-hander, is scheduled to start for the Reds in the opening spring training exhibition game against the White Sox. As of now, he's a good bet to be Cincinnati's season opening hurler.

The rest of the lineup Tabetts starts today also is expected to be the same as that on April 11.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Virgil Trucks, Sandy Consuegra and Mike Fornieles have been assigned pitching chores for the Chicago White Sox' exhibition opener with the Cincinnati Redlegs today.

Box manager Marty Marion said these three pitchers are all set for the season along with Billy Pierce, Jack Harshman, Bob Keegan, Morrie Martin and Harry Dorish.

Marion said he plans to carry 10 pitchers and among those fighting it out for the other two spots are Bob Chakales, Dick Donovan, Ted Gray, Al Brazile and Bill Fischer.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Chicago Cubs manager Stan Hack has five pitchers ready today for duty against the Cleveland Indians in the clubs' exhibition starter.

Hack will use Joe Stanka, Bubba Church and Don Elston, with John Andre and Hal Jeffcoat on first call from the bullpen.

He said his batting order would be Gale Wade, centerfield; Gene Baker, second base; Jim King, right field; Hank Sauer, left field; Ernie Banks, shortstop; Dee Fondy, first base; Eddie Miksis, third base and Joe Hannah, catcher.

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP)—With-out saying so, manager Bucky Harris of the Detroit Tigers has given a big boost to Al Kaline and Bill Tuttle, his two young outfielders.

Harris, though, indicated Kaline and Tuttle are set for out field by eight points in the first half but brothers M. C. Burton and Ed Burton led a blistering 31-point rally in the third period to give the Tigers their 14th win of the season against two losses.

Grand Rapids Ottawa Hills rallied to defeat Kalamazoo Central, 65-63.

The victory moved Ottawa Hills into a showdown game Friday night against Benton Harbor.

Highland Park, a semi-finalist for the past four years, barely edged Ferndale, 37-36.

In a wild doubleheader at Saginaw, Midland nipped Bay City Central 71-69 in overtime and Saginaw outlasted Alpena, 79-78.

A big Class A doubleheader is on tap in Flint tonight. Lansing Eastern, the "dark horse" which topped Lansing Sexton Tuesday night, meets Port Huron, while Flint Central faces Flint Northern.

Mexican Bantamweight Wins NBA Boxing Title

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Raul Macias of Mexico, who took more punishment from his fervent fans after it was over than he did from Thailand's Chamrern Songkritrat while he was winning it, is the world bantamweight boxing champion today as far as the National Boxing Assn. is concerned.

Macias won the title, which the state of California refuses to recognize, with a blistering two-fisted assault that caused referee Fred Apostoli to stop the one-sided scrap at 2:38 of the 11th round Wednesday night at the Cow Palace. By that time, Songkritrat had been felled four times.

Hundreds of screaming Mexicans clambered into the ring the minute it was over, with police unable to stop the mad scramble. Macias, "Little Mouse" to his compatriots, was swallowed up in the blustering throng, to emerge moments later perched askew on willing shoulders.

Songkritrat, a reformed hand-and-foot fighter famed throughout the Orient, was beaten twice before in quests for the title, losing decisions to now-retired Jimmy Carruthers of Australia and to Robert Cohen of France.

It was Cohen's failure to defend that led the NBA to take away his championship in January and declare the winner of Wednesday night's fight the titlist. The California Athletic Commission disagreed and declined to give the bout championship status.

Anyone in the national television audience who thought bantamweights lacked punching power received as rude a jolt as the Thailander, Macias, using a lightning left hook and jab mixed with a bruising right, had Songkritrat on the floor twice in the sixth round and twice more in the 11th. He took the mandatory eight count each time.

Macias, unbeaten in 12 pro fights, was in full charge all the way. He lost only one round, the first, on only one card.

Each weighed 117½.

Warriors Maintain Chance For Playoffs

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The playoff hopes of the Philadelphia Warriors in the National Basketball Assn. were still alive today thanks to a 102-89 victory over the Minneapolis Lakers.

The Warriors, knowing that a defeat would ruin their chances of beating out the Boston Celtics, whipped the Lakers in one of the league's two games Wednesday night with Neil Johnston racking up 29 points.

The victory left the Warriors trailing the Celtics by 2½ games with three to play.

Two streaks were ended as the Rochester Royals edged the Syracuse Nationals 100-97. The Royals snapped a four-game losing string and the defeat was the Nats' first after winning seven straight.

Dolph Schayes and Paul Seymour dropped in 24 points each for Syracuse, Rochester had seven men in double figures.

Santee And Dwyer To Race Saturday

The two runners each won one and Dwyer was disqualified in another during a series of indoor races this winter.

MANISTIQUE

High School Enrollment Increase Expected Here

Increased enrollment is expected next year in the Manistique Junior and Senior High school and an additional high school teacher will probably be needed, Supt. A. F. Hall told the Manistique board of education at a regular meeting at the school Tuesday night.

Current high school enrollment is 661, he said, and next year 702 or more are expected. Grade school enrollment, which this year is just under 500, will remain about the same in the next school year, Supt. Hall said.

The Manistique board of education, which this year anticipates a deficit of $8,000, also heard a report from a teacher's committee Tuesday night, recommending that action be delayed on teachers' contracts until Supt. Hall has obtained information on new legislation pending for state aid increases and on levying of school taxes on the higher state equalized valuation instead of county valuations.

Normally, teachers' contracts are prepared at this time and are returned after Easter, Supt. Hall noted. The board indicated action on contracts will probably be taken later this month. At present two bills are before the legislature on school tax levying, Supt. Hall explained.

In other business Tuesday, the board received a compilation of school board policies from minutes of board meetings held since 1914, and tabled action until members have an opportunity to study them and new literature available on school board policies.

A report on difficulty encountered in the library here, because two books recommended by a national reading service proved to be objectionable for student reading, was presented by Mrs. J. J. Herbert, board member. The board informally agreed that all questionable books should be referred to the school superintendent, who may destroy them if he finds them unacceptable.

Attendance and use of the library has been increasing here in recent months, board members ob-

Girl Scout Rally Plans Completed

At a regular meeting of the Manistique Girl Scout Council held Tuesday at the Public Library, completed plans for the annual Girl Scout rally were announced by the program chairman, Mrs. Thor Reque.

The city-wide affair will be held Saturday, the 43rd birthday of the founding of the Girl Scouts of America, at the Lincoln gym from 2 until 4 o'clock with the following troops participating:

Brownie troop No. 6, Skip To My Lou.
Intermediate troop No. 7, Pop Goes The Weasel.
Brownie troop No. 2, Standing by the Water.
Intermediate troop No. 5, Famous American Women (living pictures).
Intermediate troop No. 3, The Galway Piper.
Brownie troop No. 15, Yankee Doodle Dance.
Brownie troop No. 8, Adaptation of Brownie Story.
Troop No. 14, Songs, Easter Bonnet and Peter Cottontail.
Senior Troop No. 1, Formation of Color Guard and skit.
Troop No. 9, Style Show.
Troop No. 12, Songs.
Troop No. 4, Games.

Refreshments will be served by the following committee of mothers of Scouts: Mrs. Leo Chartier, chairman, and Mrs. Martin Hoholik, Mrs. John Hansen, Mrs. Julius Settergren, Mrs. Russell Fagan, Mrs. James Lambert, Mrs. George Earle, Mrs. Joe McDonough, Mrs. Charles Dyer, Mrs. Milton Bunker and Mrs. J. Walter Rich.

The organization chairman, Mrs. E. J. Doyle announced the formation of a new troop at Central fifth grade with Mrs. William Males as leader. A new Brownie troop at St. Francis de Sales school is being organized with Mrs. Ronald Hoholik as leader. A leader is needed for a fifth grade intermediate Girl Scout troop at Lincoln School.

The registrar, Mrs. Carl Makel, announced there were 13 active troops with 160 girls registered to date and 27 adults registered. Twenty-seven additional girls will be registered in the forthcoming week.

Mrs. William McKenzie, newly elected president of the Girl Scout Leaders' association, attended the council meeting as one of the leaders' representatives to the council.

Plans were formulated to send the training chairman, Miss Evelyn Berwin, to the Camp Edith Macy Training School, in New York, to attend a course this summer.

The next regular meeting of the council will be held April 12.

served at the session.

Reports on a White House conference in Marquette April 21, to which Manistique has been asked to send 35 representatives and on a meeting of the County School board association March 15 also were presented.

Truckers Pay $152 In Fines

Overweight and overheight on truckloads brought fines and costs totaling $152 into Justice court this week, Justice E. J. Doyle reports.

The truckers, all ticketed by the state weighmaster, were as follows:

Leon Bowerman, Hulbert, $114 fine and $2 costs for overload on 2800 pounds on one axle.

LeRoy Blondeau, Marquette, $18 fine and $4 costs for 1900 pounds overweight.

Ken Graham, Brimley, $10 fine and $4 costs for overweight on load.

In other Justice court cases this week, three Manistique youths were fined for speeding after they were ticketed by city police. They were Jon Schuster, 544 Michigan Ave., $18 fine and $2 costs, on second offense speeding; Donald Rodman, Rte. 1, $8 fine and $2 costs, and David R. Leny, Gulliver, $8 fine and $2 costs.

Also in court were Cletus Dixon, N. 5th St., $2 fine and $2 costs for not having an operator's license; Lloyd Fitzpatrick, of Alpena, $10 fine and $2 costs for excessive speed for conditions; and Russell T. Collins, of Menominee, who paid fines totaling $9 and costs of $6 after three cars owned by him were stopped for not having license plates. One car was driven by Collins and the other two by Robert C. Bremer and Charles W. Reese, both of Owosso.

Polio Drive Tops Quota

The annual March of Dimes in Schoolcraft county, to obtain funds for treatment of polio and for research, netted $2,315.53 this year, Mrs. A. W. Cockram, chairman, reports. The contributions exceed the county's quota by $315.53, she said.

The amounts contributed by city and township residents, and the chairmen for each unit, are as follows:

Manistique, city, Mrs. Cockram, $1,577.54; Germfask township, Mrs. William Caffey, $145.49; Mueller township, Mrs. Lake Wagner, $42.67; Thompson township, Mrs. Harry Hastings, $107.74; Seney township, Mrs. Ernest Tovey, $136.70; Hiawatha township, Mrs. Phyllis McRae, $65.08; Doyle township, Mrs. J. Witter Reid, $45.39; Gulliver township, Mrs. Ed Bjorkman, $135.74; Inwood township, Howard Schwartz, $39.18.

Mrs. Cockram, who completed her sixth year as county March of Dimes chairman, today expressed appreciation to all who contributed, and the chairmen, for their work in boosting the county above quota.

School Board Adopts Creed

The Manistique board of education Tuesday night adopted a creed for its members at a regular meeting held at the school.

The creed is as follows:

1. I hold a great public trust.
2. I am responsible for the education of our children.
3. I give freely the necessary time to my official duties.
4. I do not know nor do I need to know, the complex details of education or administration.
5. I am responsible for seeing that good administration is done.
6. My work as a board member consists of choosing competent personnel as administrators.
7. I believe in lay control but in professional teaching and administration.
8. I look to my superintendent for leadership and expect him to keep me informed as to the needs and accomplishments of the schools based upon facts.
9. I must make my own decisions.
10. I do not assume authority not granted me by the board such as offering a position, asking for resignation, or promising a contract.
11. I abide by the majority of the decisions of the board.
12. I carefully consider petitions, resolutions, and complaints, and dispose of them for the best interests of the schools.
13. I do not seek special privileges for myself, my relatives or friends.
14. I do not criticize school employees publicly.
15. I will serve the people whom I represent with dignity and honor.

Two Accidents Reported Here

Two minor accidents resulted Tuesday from snow-covered road conditions, Manistique State Police report.

A pickup truck driven by Matt Kasun, 58, of 107 River St., and owned by Manistique Lumber and Coal company, had an estimated $200 damage to the left side when it collided with a car driven by Isabelle J. Foster, 47, of Detroit late Tuesday afternoon on US-2, 18 miles east of Manistique. The autos sideswiped while it was snowing, police said. The Foster car had estimated $400 damage.

No damage was reported in another accident which occurred Tuesday on Indian Lake road, when a car driven by Fred D. Heltman, Rte. 1, Manistique, slid on an icy curve and hit a parked car owned by Ralph Gauthier of 515 N. Mackinac. The accident occurred two miles north of the city in Hiawatha township.

Ice, Broken Sanders Halt US-2 Traffic

A freezing rain early Wednesday morning coupled with the breakdown of a sand loader and two sanders of the Schoolcraft county road commission sidelined traffic on US-2, at the overpass for the Minneapolis, St. Paul and Sault Ste. Marie railroad three miles east of Manistique, for more than an hour Wednesday morning.

Cars and trucks were lined along the highway for several blocks, while road commission crews spread sand and chloride by hand on the overpass hill.

A conveyor chain was broken on a large 5-yard sander during night operations, Supt. A. C. Ackerman said, and a clutch in another sander burned out. Thus two small dump-truck sanders had to be dispatched to the hill, but these would not operate because wheels shipped on the ice and failed to turn sand-spinners. The sand also was wet, the road superintendent said.

The conveyor chain was repaired by noon Wednesday, but clutch repairs on the other sander will take a few days, the superintendent said.

The commission had eight sanders, manned by 15 men, including some mechanics, on county roads Wednesday to combat the icy conditions — the worst encountered thus far this year.

The rain began at 4:20 a. m., and road commission crews were sanding before 7 a. m., Ackerman reported. Additional difficulty was encountered because the sand loader at commission headquarters broke. Sand then had to be obtained from a pit at the Jamestown Slough, where a large crane is kept, instead of at the commission stockpile, where it is already mixed with chloride.

Traffic began moving on the highway shortly after 8 a. m.

County Committee Recommends Tax Equipment Purchase

Purchase of tax writing equipment for Schoolcraft county and acceptance of the bid of the Addressograph Sales Agency of Green Bay, Wis., to supply needed equipment and service were recommended to the Schoolcraft County Board of Supervisors by a special county tax writing equipment committee at a meeting in the courthouse here Tuesday night.

The Green Bay firm was the only one submitting a bid. The cost of the equipment will be $7,310.05, and editing of tax descriptions and other preparation for use of the equipment will cost about $6,000, the firm stated.

Wells Bowers, Mueller township supervisor, is chairman of the tax writing equipment committee. All members were present for the session. They are George Stephens, William Popour, William Rodman, Lial Lake and Vernon C. Linderth.

The resolution recommending purchase of the equipment provides that the City of Manistique and a majority of the eight townships must first agree to purchase their part of the equipment and service necessary to complete the writing of tax rolls.

The committee cast a unanimous vote on the resolution, moved by William Popour and seconded by Lial Lake.

Quemoy-Matsu Bargain Denied

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Knowland R-Calif. said Wednesday he is fully confident that the Quemoy and Matsu Islands are "not going to be placed on any bargain counter" for a deal with the Chinese Communists.

The Senate's Republican leader said in an interview he is convinced "any major effort to take these islands will be resisted by us." The offshore island groups are held by Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists.

Knowland thus replied to a suggestion by British Foreign Minister Anthony Eden Tuesday that the Nationalists withdraw troops from some islands off China as a prelude to any cease-fire agreement.

Secretary of Defense Wilson told newsmen Tuesday the loss of Quemoy and Matsu would hamper the defense of Formosa but "in the long run would not make too much difference in the result."

Foreign Languages Taught In Grades

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—About 125 elementary school children here are learning a foreign language. It's part of an educational idea that has spread across the country since 1947. More than 700 elementary schools are teaching foreign languages. Ann Arbor is typical. Third, fourth and fifth graders are taking part.

Associate Prof. Otto G. Graf, of the University of Michigan and two assistants teaching French, Spanish and German find that children having difficulty with reading English are the first to pick up the idea of a foreign language.

This, he said, is "partially because their verbal abilities are better than their reading abilities at the moment and partially because foreign languages excites their imagination, while reading does not."

The object of the classes, Graf says, is to help break down the one-language barrier in students' minds and to help them in later studies.

COSTLY DELAY

CLAREMONT, 7 H. (AP)—Raymond F. Woods, 29, was fined $25 in municipal court for driving without a license—for the fifth time in eight years.

Woods told the judge he just hadn't got around to applying for a license.
